Jennifer Mclean:

Welcome everyone. We are here on night four of Predictions Week. So far, it's just been astonishingly great. Part of what has made it so great, is you. Your amazing contribution of energy and questions and insight and transformation has made Predictions Week remarkable. The other thing that has made Predictions Week just so great is our amazing speakers. I'm so excited to welcome a very special guest, a regular contributor on MasterWorks Healing membership site, which is a Laurie Reyon. Laurie is our animal communicator and healer. She is an internationally-renowned inter-species communicator and soul healer. Laurie's gifts allow her to speak to the animals and the angels, and then translate their messages to humanity. She recognizes whale and dolphins, the cetaceans, as ancient beings on this planet that are here to guide, support, and transform all of us through their healing energies. You're going to hear more about the whales and dolphins.

Jennifer Mclean:

Laurie always shares a little bit of a message from them. And you're also going to receive insights from Master Cat Puddah, who is her cat. You'll see a picture of her there with Master Cat Puddah. So Master Cat Puddah is a master being that Laurie works with and channels amazing information and wonderful healing. Laurie also has a school for whale and dolphin healing practices. And she also has a school where she teaches really beautiful and remarkable things. This is her omni-dimensional mystic school. You're going to be hearing a little bit more about that, because she has a whole bundle of mastery that she's going to be sharing with us tonight as part of her Predictions Week special offer and bundle of spiritual transformation. So welcome Laurie Reyon to MasterWorks Healing. It's delightful to have you.

Laurie Reyon:

Thanks, Jennifer. We've been looking forward to this and it's just been wonderful listening to the other speakers. And I'm so glad to see and hear you up and about. We see you in the light.

Jennifer Mclean:

Thank you honey. So what have you got for us?

Laurie Reyon:

It's been a while. I have a little message from my higher self and then we have a beautiful message from the whales. It's a stunning message, which I'm happy to share. And then, last but not least, I'm going to let you hear from Seth, who is the higher part of Puddah, which just makes me cry. It's so beautiful. So I have a lot, but let's get started.

Laurie Reyon:

The energies coming in this year will support us from living from the heart. When we embrace our choices from the heart, we can more easily stay neutral with all of the chaos and struggles humanity is working through right now. Know that when you are peaceful, you have a tremendous expanding effect on the next steps of our collective evolution. The foundations of this next year will be unconditional love and the ability to support and nurture and heal ourselves and our environment. Many people we know are really tired of the drama of the last two years. And they're really hungry to express their compassion and their empathy. The natural state of the human is to express love and to be loved, so much of the time, this has just been a challenge. Right now, people are really motivated to find their way back into their hearts and to come to groups, such as what we're doing tonight.

Laurie Reyon:

Even the most cynical among us wants to feel good. Let's remember that. Remember that all life is sacred and that every one of us wants to feel that they're a part of something that's more important and that's loving, and they want to express that. So we predict that more of the collective will come through the negativity and realize that we still have a choice in how we are feeling every day. No one can take that feeling state from you. And we need to remember that. It's up to each of us to stay strong and positive and know that, in doing so, we radiate the coherence of our heart out into the world. And just making a positive choice about how you feel every day will change your life for the better and will help the collective move past this fear. So we predict that many, many more souls are awakening now to the power of the emotional body. They're remembering.

Laurie Reyon:

And they're observing that what we think in our mantra, what we feel, that we bring into form, in spite of any drama around you. Many souls are taking their personal power back and they're absolutely choosing to feel better about everything. I know we can all look back and see the growth in our communities and in our society over the last two years. So much has changed. And for many, we have gone within, during the changes to examine our core-level feelings. It is easier now to make personal decisions based on what you now know about yourself. These past experiences have helped us reach a state of consciousness that allows us to remember and embrace who we authentically are at our core. Solution energy is upon us. The old, limiting beliefs defined us then, and have brought us to where we are now: to a much more enlightened awareness about ourselves.

Laurie Reyon:

We have come from the unconscious self to our awakened self. We can now begin to see that moving through life and the challenges in front of us can be much easier than we thought, even joyful, and even fun when we do this together. As we move into this higher state of consciousness, like right now we're doing together, our spirit gives us the opportunity to let go of the need to believe that life has to be hard in order for us to grow. From there, we can begin to experience a new and balanced state of being. We predict that many more of our brothers and sisters will now choose to begin to consciously live within their hearts, embracing the desire to create more balance in their lives. Therefore, choosing a higher vibration to live within. No more victims, no more predators. Just positive solution-based choices and ideas as we support each other.

Laurie Reyon:

Let's visit some of the ideas that we can all do every day to support this new and upgraded belief system and vibration that we all want to live within. I like to remember the words, "it doesn't have to be difficult. Just follow the joy." Let's say that. "It doesn't have to be difficult. Just follow the joy." Every day, we should find a way to play. We should engage in some type of physical activity and remember to be spontaneous in our choices and in what comes to us. Your chosen work and your hobbies should reflect and embrace your creativity. Now, this year, more than ever. Meaning, you are doing what you love to do. Remember that emotions are the creative force in your life. And we have to retrain ourselves to tune into the feeling state and really listen.

Laurie Reyon:

Get out of the mind chatter. Again, back to the heart. Your spiritual awakening continues each day. Tune into your expansion and your own self-empowerment as it evolves. You are the creator of your own experience and you have so much more power to choose than you realize. Consider your own personal development through meditation and by connecting to nature every day. We all need to be outside more. Receiving the sunlight, connecting our feet to the earth, and receiving the blessings that Mother Earth brings us. If you choose to do these suggestions, you will create balance in your body and your mind and your spirit. And this will allow you to function at your highest and most vibrant state, emerging from the inner realms of the self. We are feeling more love, more peace, in the choice to be free. On a vaster scale, the earth has entered a timeline that is bringing us vast amounts of light.

Laurie Reyon:

The earth has entered what we call the photon valve, and what I call the codes of creation, are being activated within every single human. We are receiving more light than a year ago. This light is wisdom and it is transforming us. We can expect continued and enormous change with the light that we are integrating. It is inevitable. And at the soul level, it is designed exactly for what is happening as our awakening. In my world, the great elders that we call the whales, are teaching us that the carbon-based molecule that we are a part of, is breaking down and it's transforming itself into a crystalline molecule. The actual density of the third dimension is shifting into a higher frequency, and we are shifting with it. This is the creation of what we call our light bodies. We come from light and now we are returning to light.

Laurie Reyon:

It is absolutely a natural phenomenon. We suggest that everyone makes this conscious now, and perhaps you'll choose to begin active work with the light that you carry. And then you'll share it more easily with the world. As these changes continue to transform us, we are witnessing those that are not yet comfortable with their spiritual and physical transformation. The old ways and belief systems are holding on for so many that must now come of age. Be available to support them. These old beliefs I speak of go back a long time. We humans have collectively internalized beliefs that we've been taught. They're rooted in the idea that, in order for us to expand and to grow and to be profitable, we must experience our desires as challenging and hard. This belief is rooted in fear and the energy of what I call survival. This does not come from the heart.

Laurie Reyon:

These beliefs come from the mind and have nothing to do with today and with your true self and your own spiritual mastery. They've been passed on from generation to generation and the time has come for them to be exposed. There is no truth in your life when you operate and make choices outside of the heart and buy into these old beliefs. However, we can be grateful now for what we have experienced and what we have learned while believing that life is hard or that it's limiting. There is a surge of positive energy when an old belief is exposed and then transcended. From this place of continued awakening consciousness among us, we predict that 2022 will be one of the most magical years yet. We are poised for such great change, and we want to encourage everyone to value their lives right now and fall in love with your own gifts and your magical potentials. Remember the saying, I know you've heard it, "We are the ones that we have been waiting for."

Laurie Reyon:

So welcome and Namaste from me, Laurie Reyon, and my soul and team.

I'm going to shift the energies now, and I just want you to feel it because, well, you will. We're going to move into the consciousness now, which is much larger than me and larger than you. And this comes from the kingdom of the whales, who are the elders here. Take a deep breath and open to them. This comes from the voice of Venda Kata, who is one of the great white whales that speaks for the council of whales. As we predicted, 2020 and 2021 was an escalating time for humanity. Everyone on the planet was affected by the pandemic and the upheaval of your society. However, a deep connection was made among the humans as, for the first time, you truly shared your reality. In many ways, you have gone full circle now with the realization that is bringing each of you to a new beginning.

Laurie Reyon:

The decisions you make now will greatly affect your future. We assume that you now have a good foundation to build upon. Humanity is much clearer in what they have and what they want. It is a good time to create individually and collectively for a new and brighter future. Sometimes experiencing what you don't want can bring you such clarity. 2020 proved to be the beginning of a major planetary spiritual dark night of the soul for much of humanity. The collapse of what I call, "the old paradigm," served as a major catalyst for the awakening-process among you. Now that we are through 2021, humanity is experiencing a new hope and is emerging out of this dark night. Your experiences in the past two years have helped you prepare, process and integrate huge, personal and collective lessons, insights, and clearings.

Laurie Reyon:

You now have a new focus towards creating a new life and a new world together. Many of you now know what you do not want in your lives since having the time to experience life outside of what you once thought was normal. Not only has many of society's major dysfunctions come to the surface to be revealed and healed, but every person in the world has gone through a very personal and intense journey. We honor that. Whatever is not in the highest alignment to support your soul's desire to evolve will come up clearly and strongly, to be dealt with in the collective and for you personally. We are here for you. Each person now has the opportunity to clear what is holding them back or has held them back, advancing towards the goal of raising your personal frequency to the next level possible. Support for your personal and planetary awakening has never been stronger than it is now.

Laurie Reyon:

And we, the whales, have been poised for this perfect moment now to help you. We predict, that in 2022, many will open to their innate abilities. Your evolution is accelerated now, and there has never been a more powerful time to utilize what I call, "your deep intuition." This is the time to demonstrate your power of manifestation and to make the choice to live in unity consciousness. The veils are getting thinner and thinner. So you have access to communicate with and receive support from your guides. Perhaps this may have been blocked before. It's available to you now. Don't forget to keep trying, keep practicing, and know that this is a gift that is given to you. Also know the ascended masters around your planet and the arch angels. The higher galactic benevolent beings are here and available to assist you. You have so much support, you simply have to ask and they will be there and you will feel it.

Laurie Reyon:

We, the great whales, are truly the planetary elders. We came to earth eons ago to prepare the way for humanity. We knew that a time would come when you would remember us and then choose to use your ability to communicate with us. Please know that we have permission from source and the ability to assist you with core-level healing. In truth, we are quantum cousins from the stars and you know us. We have been patiently awaiting for the time when you would remember, and we can connect. That time is now. And we are here to help you accelerate your transition as a physical human, into reclaiming your own divine life-blueprint. This was also set in place before you were ever born. We are the great whales, and we offer you an opportunity as humans to unlock the mechanisms within you and open what we call the crystalline seals.

Laurie Reyon:

We are the keepers of the codes of creation. We are your galactic ancestors, and we are the molecular librarians of the Akashic records of this planet. We seek now to connect with humanity, to assist you in activating your dormant DNA. It is time to help you release your emotional and physical blocks that keep you bound to the human story of duality or polarity. It is time to assist you in consciously activating that crystalline DNA within you and assist you in transforming your water-based body into a light body. If you call upon us, and give your permission, we will help you claim your divine spiritual gifts of telepathic communication, natural healing, alchemy, and remembering your divine mission and star family. This is important. Take a breath and think about what we've said. Science has now proven that just listening to humpback whale sounds begins the healing process through the body fluid.

Laurie Reyon:

Dr. Emoto and Dr. Todd Ovokaitys worked together before he passed and proved that the whale sounds immediately changed the crystalline structure of the water in the body. The whale sounds turned exposed, water crystals into sacred geometric star tetrahedrons. This is the geometric form of the Merkabah, or the light body. This is further proof that water is sentient, and that water has memory. And you are water. 19 years ago, the whales shared with Laurie Reyon that they would diagnose and heal the human through the body fluid, when the communications became clear. Now, science has finally caught up to this and are able to prove this statement. The whales are the healers of the healers and with permission and your intention, they can greatly assist you in clearing old energies, old contracts, cutting cords, removing toxins, even disease and old memories that are blocking you from living every day.

Laurie Reyon:

Enjoy success and most importantly, self-empowerment. The whales say, "We suggest that you choose to connect to the sacred geometry of your own living light fields, or Merkabah, then tune to the whale frequency, and our communications. When you do, you will also experience communications and assistance from the angels as well as we operate on the same frequencies." And lastly, choose to connect yourself to the world-light grid that's often thought of as the crystalline grid, and you will become an activated being. A being of service for Mother Earth herself.

Laurie Reyon:

We predict that 2022 will be a year of continued and accelerated expansion. Many more will come to self-awareness and remember their potential and begin to access the mastery within their bodies. We predict that these beings have come consciously to the planet to support the current expanding ascension opportunities and find each other and begin working together. You're probably already experiencing that, meeting what we call, "soul family." And together we are more powerful. We predict that more and more people will begin to work together for mother earth herself. Environmentalism: it will continue. It will expand. And we are going to work together to clean up this planet. More and more people are becoming the masters of their own reality. Please know that we, the whales, choose to beam light to those of you that are embracing the concept of freedom and making a connection to your own soul.

Laurie Reyon:

You are a powerful and transformational being, and we see you. You can make a significant difference. Never doubt your own power and the abilities you have to bring more love and light to a situation, to a place or a person. Please summon us often and be open to receive our light and our healing frequencies as we beam them out to you. We predict that in 2022, you will experience more contrasts, including some chaos, more challenges, and you will witness division among the humans. However, 2022 will also bring new hope based on your choices and allowing the energy of freedom and independence to expand our consciousness and offer us new opportunities to make choices for unification. We believe that the future is not fixed and that the power to shape it is in our own hands. As we evolve ourselves, we open up limitless possibilities for others and for our world.

Laurie Reyon:

Thank you for being a part of the process of generating positive change. Don't take it for granted. You are a transformational being, and as you reach higher, you unleash untold possibilities that drift out and become a part of the collective future. We love and appreciate you. We know who you are, and we know that in the core of your being, you have come to this planet to make it a better place. We have some suggestions for the upcoming year of 2022. Just the simplest choice of staying in your heart, keeping your thoughts, your concepts out of the mind will help you move beyond fear and will bring you solution energy and great love. And again, number two, find success in the work that you do and that which you spend your time doing. Find something that you love and that accesses your creative abilities. Increase your self-love and experience deep worthiness, because you are. Set your goals and your intentions in a way that reveals miracles, instead of pushing them away. Be the catalyzing energy in your community. We need to consider our global community now in every choice we make.

Laurie Reyon:

We are being catalyzed, as humans, into actions that will benefit the highest good for all of us. We need to be mindful of our connection with others and, in unity, catalyze the changes we need for the freedom that you're seeking. Your best use of this energy is to consider every challenge an opportunity to create a new existence using your free will that is different and better than the old paradigm.

Laurie Reyon:

This requires you to keep your vibration high, refuse to allow negative or lower energies to come into your home or your body, keep your heart strong and open wide, catalyzing positive and loving energy is connected to the heart itself. The whales continue to teach us that all wisdom lives in the heart, and it is from our hearts that we can find the strength to access this wisdom. Moving through the current challenges together in unity. As we continue to find our true freedom, using kindness, compassion, and love for each other. And lastly, more and more people are becoming the masters of their own reality. They're living what we've just described. We, the whales, choose to beam light to you embracing the freedom and again the connection of the souls that chooses.

Laurie Reyon:

Remember how powerful and transformational you are. We are the whales. We are the planetary elders. We know you well, please accept our offer to be in your lives, assisting you in bringing you our vibration. Let us raise our collective vibrations through the power of love. Let us create a peaceful world in which to live. Beloved humans, you are dearly loved. I am Vendekata of the great white whale council. Namaste.

Laurie Reyon:

Everybody take a deep breath and just let those whales come in. They'll come in etherically and surround you and begin to change the vibration. And when you have the opportunity, just take a moment to go to YouTube or to the internet and listen to some whale sounds and know that your home is being cleaned. Your actual blood chemistry is beginning to change and it's, you know, it's the simplest thing to listen to whale sounds and know what a powerful difference it means. I mean, I move my energy now to my partner. And some of you who have this love story like I do with your animals, you understand that it's a life changing thing to have the love that you share for your animal be a huge part of your life. The magic of Puddah, the being we now call Puddah, she's in her third female incarnation.

Laurie Reyon:

She's always born on March 3rd. When she comes back right now, she's 13 years old in this third Puddah body. And in 2012, she revealed to me who her soul was, and that being is known as Seth. And when I channel Seth or bring in Seth, it's a cosmic experience for me. It's empowering. And it's what I call pure wisdom. I'd like to share a message from Seth. "Beloved ones. We are standing at the dawn of a new era. One that we are co-creating as we transverse the planetary shifts and lend our vision and hearts to a world in great transition. I know these are not easy times. However, as we stand together as heart centered beings of light, knowing we're here to fulfill a sacred and timely destiny, we must rise above the challenges, holding light and peace within us, bonding and sharing with other like-minded individuals and groups.

Laurie Reyon:

The reasons we incarnated in this life are being revealed and your great destinies are waiting to be fulfilled. It is so important that we stay connected to each other, like we are today, choosing to ride the tides of the waves of change is the most historic time on earth from the higher planes. Masses of souls are awakening right now and will continue to change life as we know it on earth. 2022 is being heralded as one of the most illustrious and significant points in time within what we call the great awakening. This comes because masses of souls have been undergoing powerful transformations over many years, clearing the deep levels of their lives to unveil the shadow elements. We are now dedicated to healing all that has held us back. We are here to say goodbye to the darkness within, the darkness within the illuminated self so that we can claim our true now authentic selves and create a powerful and clear connection to our souls.

Laurie Reyon:

Remember, the soul is the "I am" presence or often considered the immortal eternal self. I can share that hundreds of millions of souls have been attending to their inner world and finding those blockages that cause illness and shadow in their lives. We are being healed at the core level as we focus on transformation back into our empowered life bodies, as the whale shared. For anyone that is struggling with the challenges and changes, I ask you again, as we all have to come back to the heart, please experience this grand play from a higher vantage point to see the truth. What is really going on? Come above the holographic 3D script that you're witnessing. See the clarity and focus with pure intention. It is now essential to be able to see the new direction of humanities and the positive potentials for our future. As the amnesia clears for each of us, the spirit within is activated to full glory, able to manifest and vision in our consciousness as more and more individuals awaken and fully realize that they are divinity embodied.

Laurie Reyon:

We anchor a new vibration of what has been termed heaven on earth and a higher dimensional existence occurs. You are among the many awakening souls who I call the front runners. You are ready for the next expansion under what we call this great alignment. Many of you have now experienced the last vestiges of suffering. As you have set your intention for core level Karmic cleanup, great divine support has been lending its hand in clearing the deep recesses of your Akash. Making these choices has catapulted many souls back into their authentic selves. From this vibration, you can begin to assist the divine plan, co-creating positive planetary change and affecting our planetary destiny.

Laurie Reyon:

Congratulations to those of you who have answered this call and resonate with that part of my message. I can now announce a major leap in the soul evolution of the guardian souls who have embodied from the future and the other souls who have incarnated to be here at this specific moment in time. Does that resonate for you? On January 22nd, 2022, the great alignment I speak of will be complete. This is orchestrated largely from the future, from the Archangels and the hosts of light and the guardians that serve you.

Laurie Reyon:

The lessons of the past will be fully integrated as internal wisdom then, and you will find your attention being fully present in the now much easier. You will also know without doubt that your future is intact and that we have literally flipped the old timeline of suffering to that of a 5D peaceful future. Do you want to be a part of this? If this message resonates for you, you are hearing the words of your own soul's truth. You are here to assist in the great divine plan to free this world and its people from endless suffering, which has been the way of life here for a long time. Your ability to demonstrate peace, to hold the neutrality in the face of negativity or chaos. This will sustain you and you will change more lives than you know simply by holding that vibration. Many of you are remembering that you are in this world for a very important reason, but you are not of this world.

Laurie Reyon:

2022 is truly what we will refer to as the Dawn of a New Era. Therefore, it is of utmost importance for each soul to do a thorough life evaluation and inventory of themselves as we say goodbye to 2021, ask yourself the important questions as you make your plans for 2022. What frequency are you committed to living in? You must do this each day. What dimensional reality are you called into? Do you want to live in a world of peace? What are your personal desires and prayers? And are you ready to release what no longer serves your soul's progression back into the life? Now is the greatest opportunity than ever before to become free to express and live your soul's desires, access your strengths, access your courage as this is what we have waited for as a collective. In the outer world you will still see darkness.

Laurie Reyon:

It will attempt to rise. It will attempt to control, and it will not give up easily. However, the light is fully grounded now and present and will prevail. I promise you that, my beloveds. The divine light will illuminate the way for countless souls to awaken and continue to join our collective. The great awakening is in full force now and will continue with the assistance of the Archangels of Light and they are helping to implement the new coded reality that will bring this concept fully online that we call Heaven on Earth. As you do your part, allow your inner light to shine brightly. As you come into the peace of your divine nature you choose to live in a higher vibrational reality. So do many of the souls that are similar to you, even soul family, as we link together, weaving our light with a new destiny for this beautiful planet.

Laurie Reyon:

The world is changing moment to moment, please know in your deepest wisdom that the world will be free of darkness. This is playing out now in its final chapters. These are the end times and you wouldn't have missed it for the world. You wanted to be here now to be a part of this, let us celebrate together and bring in the glorious divine light, as we know we are a part of it. There is an unstoppable unifying action moving across the earth. Take a moment and let that wash over you. Feel it. This is the most powerful movement of light we have ever known from this planet. And it is set on awakening the masses, millions of souls are engaged and a supporting cast of enlightened ones from the higher realms are not going to leave. They're going to stay and instrument the great changes that we allow for. Remember free will reigns.

Laurie Reyon:

It's up to you to get on board. This is totally the moment you have waited for as this great shift occurs. This positive change will continue despite the increased control and the harm that you see taking place on our planet. Souls of earth, we are coming of age. We are entering into a new timeline, a new energy and a frequency pattern known in the higher realms. Many of you know that you are absolutely here to demonstrate the great awakening and to be a leader, a way shower for the others to evolve in a natural, but timely way. I am here to remind you that this is truly the time of where you can choose to illuminate the soul self within the physical form. We are manifesting the sacred destiny of this planet. Many souls bring their vision to the grand plan now, landing their positive energies to the planetary shift that's underway.

Laurie Reyon:

Expect to see a more perfect world emerge out of the old form, like a butterfly from the chrysalis. 2022 is a new beginning, opening us to a new dawn. Many of you are souls that are coded to fully activate this year, your life bodies, to follow your destiny and lead the way for others. As far as predictions go, the next major dimensional shift will occur as I said on January 22nd, 2022. Welcome it. It is a vast portal of light that is destined to open and that has been prophesized for eons. This portal opening will bring a shift in vibration that will bring a tremendous acceleration to the planetary consciousness. Many awakened souls will expand in their conscious awareness and their specialized gifts will begin to manifest. For those that are still sleeping, they will receive a powerful activation also targeting their hearts and the codes of creation within them.

Laurie Reyon:

Amnesia will fall away. And for many that have been on earth asleep, are no longer bound to the old reality of 3D. Awakening is the keynote of 2022. Pass it on. While this has been an ongoing theme, I tell you the next wave of souls will come of age this year and join the awakened and powerful collective of light workers. This new network of light spans dimensions, countries and races. This new light network is destined to uplift and inspire and advance humanity and all beings that choose into a higher vibrational field that we call 5D. This title or change is birthed from within each of you one by one and takes form. A harmonizing energetic occurs when we do this and 2022 will be the chemical process that you've waited for to expand your life.

Laurie Reyon:

This new way of living and being in a higher dimensional experience while still standing on the earth is those that would call the advanced souls on earth and to establish this new reality, this new template for us. You know if you're a part of this, and if you don't feel that you are, consider joining us. Light beings such as yourself release a special coded frequency into the world that changes the reality around them and actually restructures the matter planes back into what we call divine perfect patterning. The divine energies that you radiate from your heart when fully activated become such a catalyst for the great planetary change.

Laurie Reyon:

More than you realize, this change largely from within you is time coded with release points that will affect the mass awakening and the positive planetary changes. Do your part, understanding that there are many councils of light and celestial light beings serving the earth at this time. We are not alone. They are here in full support and will work with you as you continue to remember and open your belief systems to their presence. Remember to use your free will to ask for assistance as you embrace your greater purpose, your greater mission and remember the great whales and dolphins are a part of your healing and the recalibration and restoration of your DNA. Call upon them often and they will help you. Know that many of the great minds, the great scientists of our earth have witnessed their inventions and the great advances that they bring from other worlds have been held back.

Laurie Reyon:

I predict that 2022 will be the beginning of the part of our past where they play now key roles in bringing forth their advancements. The energy of 2022 will give them the support that they are receiving, that they want to receive, and will assist these new advancements in manifesting into our reality and out into the world. 2022 is filled with great promise. I call out to the hearts of each of you cheering you on as you stand in and hold the light for all. I want you to know that I've done this before. I've existed in the being you know as Seth in many worlds over many, many millions of years. I'm not a newbie. You are transforming darkness into light and you are to be acknowledged and I am here to cheer you on. Never doubt this, as we have come into a time when you can witness the great changes that you have helped to create, great progress is underway bringing great benefits to the masses of humanity that have suffered.

Laurie Reyon:

This is the time that we have been called for, our mission is being accomplished despite every appearance to the contrary. Old systems will die and new ones will emerge in a higher vibrational level to be of benefit to all of humanity. Those humans still living in the old ways out of integrity, demonstrating greed and corruption, will be removed from their seats of power. You will witness more enlightened ones taking their places as they will implement the concept the visitations have taught us.

Laurie Reyon:

We are here to share and care for each other. We are here to live within what we call the pod mind, which is living for the good of all, not the self.

Laurie Reyon:

In closing, 2022 is the key in the lock of such great change. Beloveds, stay strong in the life, living each day and creating from your heart with great intention, listen to your soul and know that we are all here by divine design fulfilling this great destiny. We will return to working with the earth herself. You are loved and supported beyond your imagination, dear ones and I am Seth.

Laurie Reyon:

Thank you so much for listening and Happy New Year. Many, many blessings.

Jennifer Mclean:

Wow, Laurie, that's pretty cool. Your higher self, Seth, the whales, and there is some agreement between them and it's really very, very hopeful. The chaos and the darkness and the control of the old systems that are ending, it's a reality that will still be happening, but we can stand, as you say, as all three said, in neutrality.

Laurie Reyon:

Yes. Be right to someone, even at war, and not be effective.

Jennifer Mclean:

Yes, that's right.

Laurie Reyon:

Absolutely, not that you want to judge them or join them. But you can be neutral and you can trust that their evolutionary choices and paths are not going to implement or affect you, that you're going to stand strong in your own beliefs.

Jennifer Mclean:

Yes. We honor them and have compassion and kindness for them, and by doing that, we strengthen our "I am," and we strengthen that and we become a ping that helps all. I love this message. Thank you so much for these three amazing messages.

Laurie Reyon:

Thank you for allowing me to share it. It's my honor. Years ago on your show, more than once you used the metaphor of, can you imagine walking down the street of a city and a riot is coming towards you, like thousands of people carrying clubs and fire bombs and they're screaming and yelling and they're angry and you, walking down the street, you walk through them, you just keep your eyes down, but just keep walking with confidence.

Jennifer Mclean:

That's right.

Laurie Reyon:

And you said, you had no idea, if that was to happen, how many people would be affected or in the riot that would absolutely turn around and go.

Jennifer Mclean:

Exactly, it would dissipate their energy completely. Yes. That's so cool. I would like to tell you the story of Michael Tamora who was in a bank robbery. I tell the story a lot. He was someone I actually interviewed on Healing With The Masters years ago and he told this story. Michael was in a bank robbery and he went, amazingly, what they talked about tonight, moved into that energy of love and joy and laughter. For him, it was also laughter. And as a result, he wasn't really paying attention as to what was happening. The bank robbers made everyone lie on the ground, but he stood among the bank robbers and they couldn't see him. And what's different now I think is that level of energy is now available to influence these circumstances. In fact, he was called in by the FBI, because they're like who is this guy? It was on video, right? He's standing among all the bank robbers and their guns are swishing within inches from his head and he's not budging. They think he's part of it. He was obviously eventually released, so that's what is possible when we stand in that beautiful powerful energy of our awakened neutral self. Thank you, Laurie. That was just beautiful.

Laurie Reyon:

Thank you so much for saying that. It took a lot of time to bring that third message through, a couple of days actually, but I've just been holed up here with Puddah and I find myself just weeping with joy because, as Laurie, I'm a human, I don't know all of this all the time. I mean, I'm tapped into my heart. I live in joy and peace. I do my best, but I don't always get that type of message until I really go deep and because of you, I was able to receive it because of the invitation to present it. So thank you for the opportunity.

Jennifer Mclean:

Thank you. I think the other thing that happens here, and the whales in particular shared this, is that there is energy through every word that Laurie spoke. You know, there were a lot of words and they were all very hopeful words. However, if you didn't catch all the words, it's okay. You can receive the energy that the words brought forward.

Laurie Reyon:

Absolutely.

Jennifer Mclean:

Thank you, Laurie. This is just lovely, lovely, lovely. What a cool set of messages.

Laurie Reyon:

Yes, the message is: Remember the power you have in your free will choice. Remember that, you know, don't be swayed by what has been or what other people are saying. You must be strong in your own convictions to stand in the light and to be the light and not think of it as difficult. Just be confident in the choice that you have to make new choices, especially this year and just be love. Love is what we all need and want, and we have to be it.

Jennifer Mclean:

And you know, Laurie's monthly sessions usually fall around the Equinox and Solstice. What's cool about Laurie on MasterWorks Healing is you will get a whale message about the Equinox. As the seasons change, Laurie brings incredible messages for the seasonal changes and coincidentally, I think there is no coincidence that you got that spot, but you know, on the 22nd I'm starting the 22/22 prayer circle. The first prayer circle of the year is on January 22nd. Again, no accidents that this particular year is when the prayer circle falls on that day. So, I always have lots of synchronicities when you're on of, "Oh, that's why."

Laurie Reyon:

I love that. I'll be there in your prayer circle. I enjoy them.

Jennifer Mclean:

Yeah. Cool. Okay. Well, thank you, Laurie. Are we good to move into some session work?

Laurie:

I would like to hear from people on how you feel about what you've just heard and how that reflects in your personal life.

Jennifer Mclean:

Oh perfect.

Laurie Reyon:

It has to catalyze questions, right? It does for me when I listen to the channeling that I receive.

Jennifer Mclean:

Yes.

Laurie Reyon:

How does it affect you? How do you see yourself in 2022 and can we help you? Can we support you and how?

Jennifer Mclean:

In this new energy? Perfect. Let's everyone hold in intention right now, as I'm about to hold the intentions, that part of that intention is that we hold the energy of what these three masters have brought through and that we ask our questions from that master and see if the question changes from what it was just a few minutes ago. Okay, we're going to hold an intention now, everyone take the small action. Take these small actions. The small stuff adds up to big manifestation. Stop what you're doing and put your hand on your heart right now and say these exact words to yourself with a level of presence and conviction too. So that you're really holding an intention, say to yourself the following words. "May the perfect people be chosen to work with Laurie and Master Cat Puddah tonight, so that I receive at the highest levels."

Jennifer Mclean:

Say that to yourself and say it again in slightly different ways, say these exact words to yourself with presence and conviction, "May the perfect people be chosen to work with Laurie and Master Cat Puddah tonight so that I get exactly what I need at this time." There we go. Ooh, that put a little intention in the field. I felt that ping, so the intention is in the field, we are ready to go. And again, if you'd like, like I've been sharing all week, you can write a little message about what you need and require. Write it this time from what you just experienced from Laurie's amazing messages. And then if you hear something that Laurie says that pings, write that down. By the time you're done, you'll have your own personal rating. Okay. Laurie, would you pick a number from 1 to 167?

Laurie Reyon:

77.

Jennifer Mclean:

Perfect. Okay. We're going to call number 77 and that is Michelle in Michigan. You're on the air.

Michelle:

Well, actually, I've been listening all week and I've had questions about myself and as soon as I heard Laurie talks to animals or those animal stuff, now I have another question. I'm concerned about my bird.

Jennifer Mclean:

What's your bird's name?

Michelle:

Solaris.

Jennifer Mclean:

Can you spell that for us please?

Michelle:

S-O-L-A-R-I-S.

Jennifer Mclean:

Okay. Did you get that Laurie?

Laurie Reyon:

Solaris. Okay. What kind of bird?

Michelle:

She's a little Parakeet.

Laurie Reyon:

Okay. And what's going on?

Michelle:

Well, when I first got her a few years ago, when she'd start laying eggs, she looked like she was going to die, but she got out of it and she did that for like a year. And she hasn't laid eggs in several years and now she looks like she's going to die again. She's just kind of lying there on her food perch, like just really listless.

Laurie Reyon:

Hmm. How old is she?

Michelle:

She's about eight.

Laurie Reyon:

Okay. So you're asking for a message from her or are you asking about her health?

Michelle:

Well. I don't know if she's okay. Do I need to take her to a vet?

Laurie Reyon:

Okay. I'm going to ask because of the timing. She's entering into what she calls her transitional phase. She's preparing to go home.

Michelle:

Oh God.

Laurie Reyon:

And she wanted you to know how much she loves you. Please, please she says, don't take it personally. You haven't done anything wrong. It's her time.

Michelle:

Oh God.

Laurie Reyon:

She has very, very much enjoyed being with you and she's been very much a guide for you. She's always bringing in positive, loving energies you know?

Michelle:

Yes.

Laurie:

She's happy to give you a message if you like.

Michelle:

Yes.

Michelle:

Ok. She's talking, from the way I understand, it is about your career, about your life choices. There's kind of blessing or change that you're in right now or you're headed towards a transition. Does that make sense?

Michelle:

I'm hoping I'm headed towards a transition.

Laurie Reyon:

Well, she's blessing it. She thinks the change will be very good for you. And the words Puddah is using to help me translate her, is "You know what to do". You absolutely know what to do, but you need to commit to the, I would say, the inner work and then the action steps that are given to you to bring about this new change, this transition. I'm going to use the word 'career' for a better word. That will bring you prosperity. You've been in a stage of patience, here you've had to wait and that's breaking through now. And the part of you that's most activated as far as your messenger gifts are the clear, clear cognizance, which is what I call clear knowing. You should trust that and not doubt yourself. Feel in your gut, what is best for you. Because that's your spirit, your soul talking to you. And she's delighted to have been a part of your life.

Laurie Reyon:

And you know, she's not leaving tomorrow, but she's making her way home. And she doesn't want you to feel bad, she wants you to celebrate with her. And you know, she may return. Depending on how it plays out. But you're never parted. You know, when somebody transitions, whether it's animal or human, they are just buying a new dress. You know, they're still with us, but we miss the body. I know that, I don't want to.

Michelle:

Yes.

Laurie Reyon:

You know, finish the relationship you have with the body that she has, because that's just part of being human. We fall very much in love with each other's physicality, but she's with you, honey. She loves you.

Michelle:

Is there anything I can do for her?

Laurie Reyon:

Good question. Don't worry. Don't bring anxiety or the frenetic energy of worry into her life. Just be peaceful. Sit with her, talk to her, meditate with her, play beautiful music and just be together. Enjoy the time you have.

Michelle:

Okay.

Laurie Reyon:

Thank you for calling.

Michelle:

No, thank you so much.

Jennifer:

Thank you Michelle, that was beautiful.

Michelle:

You're welcome. She actually answered my question. I would've asked you about myself.

Jennifer:

Very cool. That's awesome. I love when that happens. That's amazing. Thank you, Michelle. Can you pick a number from 1 to 72?

Michelle:

Absolutely. 100.

Jennifer:

100. Awesome. Thank you for bringing those messages through for all of us. Now, one of the things that you're going to hear over and over again, is that most of the messages that the pets give us are messages for us. They're reflecting back to us. They reflect back to us. Whatever is going on with them is going on with us. Know that's in part what's happening. And that's why her beautiful question was answered by her beautiful pet. That means that there are many messages for all of us tonight. All right, we're going to international number 1207. You're on the air.

Tina:

It's Tina.

Jennifer:

Oh hey Tina. Tina has been with us for a long, long time.

Tina:

I know I love it. Laurie said we should reflect on what the master said for 2022.

Laurie:

Yes, what I reflected on was that we have the innate ability to heal our self.

Tina:

And I really like that. I have talked to you before about allergies and a little bit hypoglycemic and other things, and I keep going around in circles. I want to ask if I'm able to finally believe or get to the next level where I can actually stay continuously healed. Because I get better, then something else comes. So that's what I want.

Laurie:

When you say something else comes, what are you talking about? Are you referring to a health challenge?

Tina:

Yes. I go through something called M.E.A.T., and I get better and then something happens, and it comes back. I'm way better than I used to be. But it's like my brain doesn't allow me to heal a hundred percent. There's some block there or whatever.

Laurie:

First of all, reflecting on what we've shared from these masters is you're the creator of reality. And that's really hard for people to hear when we're challenged. We don't necessarily want responsibility for our own illnesses and for the negativity in our lives, through the choices that we've made either consciously or unconsciously. But the first step is to really love that part of yourself, really go into the heart and love the fact that some of the things that you're experiencing are not loving or they don't feel good right now. It's the very, very first step: to own that. And then to ask for forgiveness for yourself, Master Cat Puddah would tell you that self-love is the key to everything. That we must fill our cup every day. We must do some type of balancing meditation to bring the energy of the Earth and the energy of what we call creator into our life and then get into the heart and that triangulates. Do you understand what I'm saying?

Laurie:

The triangulation of the energy is where the shifts begin. If you stay in duality, you're in your mind and you're pouncing back and forth. And again, my partner calls it the eternal ping pong game. You know, "I can do it. No I can't. I can do it. No I can't. I can do it. No I can't ..." on and on and on. And you know, if you're tired of that, you've got to come back. You have to use your free will to balance the energy in your body. And this is for everybody. I really recommend doing it first thing in the morning, before you get connected to technology. Even if you can just step outside or be in the sunlight for five to 10 minutes and ground yourself. Really, you know, in gratitude, thanking the Earth herself for being your mother and for using her energy to create your physical body gratitude and then breathing in the energy of the sun because the sun is the portal, our creator.

Laurie:

And that's the origin of your creation. Those are the codes we're talking about. You want to breathe that in. And, of course, actual sunlight is best. And then come into the heart. And that triangulation moves you out of the duality. It moves you into a higher frequency, which allows you to do exactly what the messages said, which is, be in a 5D frequency of peace and healing while you're still adding on the Earth. And if you do that in the morning, you will be protected from these lower energies.

Laurie:

You'll be isolated, if you will, you'll create a matrix of energy, a vibration that's very protective around your home. I also recommend blazing the violet flame, you know, listening to whale sounds. Lots of things I can share, but it's believing that you have the power to do this, whatever illnesses or challenges you're feeling. They are not outside of you. They're within you. And that is sometimes hard to hear, but if you can own that, you can forgive, claim it and say, thank you for the lesson. Thank you for teaching me. I am ready to move on now and really mean it.

Laurie:

Each person has the ability to be a spiritual master and, in another world, before you came here, you were. It's actually encoded into your DNA. But how do I convince you of that? You know what, I can't. You have to convince yourself of that. I can only guide you. And I can tell you how strong you are and you have this incredible ability to talk to your support team. You're surrounded by angels. Every one of us is, and you have three beautiful guides. And most of us have animals in our lives to continue to steward us and support us. But you have to want that. If you don't mind my saying, I'm going to correct your language. Don't say 'something is wrong with me. Is my brain malfunctioning?' No, no, it's not. It's the soul self for you that wants to break through and speak from the physical form and connect to your life in every possible way in a loving and nurturing and healing way. Okay. Is that helpful?

Tina:

Yes. That is helpful. Do you mind if I ask, why do little kids have allergies? My grandson is two. He had it since he was one. How do you heal a baby?

Laurie:

That's a really, really good question. I just want to point out that allergies are one of the easiest things to heal and I don't want to criticize anybody who's had challenges with healing allergies. But I do want to say it's a war that you've set up between you and yourself. It's a lack of self-love some place in your body. You don't feel worthy and it's your own immune system attacking you. It's a dispute that's in your body that you want to stop. In my world, one of the great allergy healers I've seen are the cats. The cats are amazing allergy healers, and the whales of course can heal it really quickly. If you're looking for a core level healing, feel free to go into your heart and see if I'm the person to contact to guide you through that with the whale energy.

Laurie:

But it isn't a difficult healing. I can think of a story where I helped a woman who had incredibly bad allergy. She had shots every day and she had also severe sea sickness and she wanted to cure both of those. So we did a whale healing for her. And then we went out on the boat together to see the dolphins and whales. I used to have severe sea sickness. And she said, it was like her body was running like a new program. Like one you'd install on your computer. And it takes a minute to adjust to the new programming and to navigate your computer. Right? But she said she could feel her body looking for the old programming, but it wasn't there. It was gone. I just want to encourage you to know you can do this and no, it's not anybody's fault. It's an individualized thing.

Jennifer:

Laurie, she was asking about her grandson who's 2.

Laurie:

Yeah. She's asking about allergies. And her grandson who's 2 years old. She's wondering about why kids get them. Well, you know, in a very real way, the children are still ancient souls. They're still carrying ancient memories and they're here with the soul. And if they've come in with an allergy, and I can relate to this, because my sister had that as a child, it's something that the soul is designing for them to clear. It's not permanent. Again, it is one of the easier things to heal. It's not long-term in the sense of you have to carry this your whole life. A couple of solutions you could do is in a meditation or a prayer, contact the higher self, and then ask him if it's okay for you to play whale sounds for him and do that. And ask whales to come and help him.

Tina:

Okay. They have a cat, so he's super happy with that.

Laurie:

Good and ask the cat to help too, but remember permission.

Tina:

Okay.

Laurie:

Then if they're two years old, they're still a soul. They have a sovereign entity. So permission is key.

Tina:

Okay. The whales and the cat.

Laurie:

And with the two year-old, you're going to need to go to the self, to the higher self and you could do that and you'll do it from a place of love. It should be very effective. I hope so. Let me know.

Tina:

Yes. Laurie this is the second time I was able to talk to you, it must mean something. So I appreciate it.

Laurie:

Sure. We're here to help.

Jennifer:

Thank you for bringing that great information for them. That was awesome. And thanks for letting me clarify, because I think the first information was for a whole bunch of people on this call. Tina, would you pick our next person from 1 to 168?

Tina:

66.

Jennifer:

66. I want to mention that Laurie has an amazing special offer. This is from her Omni Dimensional Mystery school. It is www.laurieoffer.com. She's put together this amazing expanded advanced vibrationally high bundle for you to really, really help you through this amazing year. And it includes the Ascension Guidance CD.

Jennifer:

This is Master Cat Puddah, and mom, and they brought together these incredibly empowering messages for Ascension guidance, including tools and things that you can do. Really great little guide. Secondly, you've got Master Cat Puddah speaking. It's another a download, these are not CDs. Master Cat Puddah is so straightforward and easy to listen to. And on this particular audio, you're going to hear about conscious time travel, entering your sacred heart. Some questions that people have are being answered right here, messages from the whales and dolphins, prayer, dolphin, and DNA. We all go to meditation to remember yourself, etcetera. The third audio download you're going to get is a message from the great whales and dolphins. And yet another message. This really talks about the violent flame, additional processes that merit what Laurie was talking about, that you could apply to elevate your matrix and to create that beautiful natural protection for yourself and find that neutral energy.

Jennifer:

The third thing is the guided meditations with great whales and dolphins. Her guided meditations that come from the whales and dolphins are ridiculous. If you want to have an amazing healing experience, that one is going to be one to listen to. Then on top of that are seven workshops. One is Activating the Pineal Gland. This is your third eye access. I know some of you really have been wanting to do that. This is taught by Drunvalo Melchizede, and she's one of her apprentice students. This is called the Eight Themes of Light, very powerful to help activate and balance the third eye, which is really our connection to spirit.

Jennifer:

You're also going to get the Develop Your Intuition with Clairaudience, and Telepathic Abilities. If you don't have clear communications with your guide, you're about to get it. You're going to get a beautiful product that helps you develop that. Also, you're going to get Manifest Living in Soul Energy. Oh, this is a beautiful one. This is like living in the heart. She talked about this a lot. She's going to show you how to do that. Living in the heart, accessing your soul, which creates amazing manifestations. It is the pathway to manifesting. It is the true law of attraction in action. And it also activates self-love and truth. Did you have something to say about that, Laurie?

Laurie:

I was just going to say, you can have whatever you want when you come into this vibration. It's not like anything is outside of you anymore. Manifestation becomes a spiritual tool.

Jennifer:

Yes, it's a state of being that Laurie is going to actually teach you how to do. And then there is also a powerful healing modality class series. This is six hours of training. This is really incredible. This is about angelic healing. Remember she talked about it. These are the things that you can and do every day. You're going to learn about angelic healing. You're going to learn about healing with the violet flame. You're going to learn whale healing and clearing whale healing and clearing dolphin, DNA healing, and calibration, Palladian toning techniques from the Lemurian choir light language. You're going to experience the Andara Crystal Healing, very profound, a program that gives you some amazing daily tools that you can use, as well as just general overall healing and clearing of these old things that she talked about in the messaging.

Jennifer:

Finally, Aligning with Your Soul's Purpose. This is a four-week workshop is great value. Again, more stuff about aligning with your soul and really getting to the purpose. Why did you incarnate in this lifetime? You'll know by the time you have completed this one. There is also an animal communication workshop. You're going to learn how to do animal communication like Laurie does. Do you know what your animals are saying to you? Developing your animal communication skills.

Jennifer:

I can't believe how much you're giving away here. You are also giving away Connecting to Your Star Family. This is discovering your galactic language or the galactic lineage with that. Laurie's idea is that we are a soul group and that you have a galactic lineage to Seth and that's in part why you attract Master Cat Puddah. You're going to learn who you really are as a soul, you're going to find out your galactic history, how cool is that? You're going to trace your star lineage with Seth. You're going to access your cosmic records. You're going to learn what you're here on earth to do. You're going to learn how to live beyond this duality. You got a little sample of it in that last session. You're going to find the savior within.

Laurie:

This is a cosmology class. I literally had more than one person say, this is worth $5,000. I mean, this is the history of the Earth and your part in it. It's almost too good to be true because when I first took this class, I was the voice. I'm the speaker for Seth, but I'm learning when I took this course right along with you now, I've made it to part of my life, you know, and we teach it often. But it's so powerful for anybody who has questions. We're here on earth with such great purpose, but you know where you came from, what you did before you came here, your star family, your lineage is such a big part. You know, people go out and get their DNA tested to find out what's in the DNA from the Earth plane. Do you want to know what it's like from the universe? That's what this is about.

Jennifer:

Well, let me tell you, Laurie and I have fun with this. Laurie is our most woo-woo speaker in the best way possible. If you are a woo-woo person, this is the offer for you. If you're not a woo-woo person and want to learn something, it's more than just woo. You know, I'm kind of having fun here, but it's a lot more than just woo, like that galactic family lineage thing - that's amazing. You can actually learn the galactic history. You can actually learn how to do animal communication. You can learn your soul's purpose. You can actually experience powerful healing modalities. You can manifest, manifest, manifest the keys to manifestation. You can develop your intuition and clear audience, telepathic, open your Pineal gland, and as well as receiving powerful meditations and guidance. Laurie, you have out fricking done yourself this year. Thank you so much for this amazing offer. Wow.

Laurie:

You know, my webmaster said, you've been doing this a long time. And I picked out the very, the very special ones. I think that people will really in resonate this time.

Jennifer:

Well, it's a high vibrating group. So you pick the most high vibrating products you have.

Laurie:

Yes.

Jennifer:

We can take a few more readings. Call number 1207. Are you there?

Kirsten:

Hi. I have a question about a dog that died over 10 years ago and he's been showing up everywhere. And I'm wondering what he has to tell me. His name is Amas.

Laurie:

What kind of dog was he? Just give me a visual.

Kirsten:

He was a golden retriever white mix. He was really blonde. And fuzzy.

Laurie:

And you're feeling Amos? Let's bring Amos' spirit in. Hi Amos. Come on in. Puddah is pleased to help. Okay. I'm getting a visual of you surrounded by children.

Laurie:

Yes. The message is that you have a powerful connection to what would be considered the new souls on our planet. You know, the children, the teens, and that, you're sort of a way-shower for them. You have a bond. And if you haven't accessed that yet, it's not too late. You might want to volunteer somewhere or open up to be a part of some type of group where young people are involved. I'm seeing you with an angel and I'm asking to identify the Archangel Zadkiel to keep an open mind and know that you've asked for this message, because it has been at some level hidden from you. It's about remembering that part of you that wants to help in some way, be connected to this younger generation that's coming up to form relationships, to guide them. And again, remembering that part of you that chose to do this, and it's actually Puddah saying that it's the same energy that you feel around the animals.

Laurie:

That's the purity that you carry. So congratulations for that. And it's time to share it. It's time to reach out. If you're not sure how to do it, you might start with a friend or a neighbor's child and ask them to come over and, you know, play a game with them. And take them on a journey. When my friends visit here, we go to Sea World, or we go to Disneyland, or we go to the beach, we go out on the boat. Kids love to have these journeys with other people where they can be open to receive, you know, and it's not like you have to preach to them. It's just your energy being with them. That's going to guide them, encourage them to access that part of themselves. That's courageous. And you know, what I find when I'm around kids and I, as you can imagine, we all have been sort of shut down for a while, but we have our Dolphins Love Kids program.

Laurie:

And when the kids come out on the boat with me, and then they get off, I ask them what the dolphins told them. And you wouldn't believe the stuff they tell me. They're very telepathic. They immediately tune in to the dolphins or they immediately tune in to Puddah. And they're ready to share their learning from the animals. You might start there and just be a guidepost for them so that they can speak outside of what they might say in their own family, with their parents. They would be encouraged to share that inner part of themselves and know that you really do want to hear. Give them a person to listen. Can you do that?

Kirsten:

Yes. That's certainly something to pursue. I have no experience with children. So it's been very hidden from me.

Laurie:

Well, maybe not in this life, but you do have experience with kids, they're saying, or you wouldn't be getting this message. Here's another thing. And this is for everybody listening. Puddah is saying, when you're in the supermarket, or the grocery store, and you're standing in line, or you come across a family, especially somebody with a young child or a baby, take a moment and really look into their eyes. And do it from your heart and say to them telepathically, welcome to Earth. I see you. Thank you for coming. They need that. They need to experience light workers like ourselves that see them.

Laurie:

Outside of just being a child where perhaps they're in a family that is unawakened and they need signposts along the way to know that we see them and we're going to support them. That's a good way to start, okay?

Kristen:

Yeah, that sounds easy enough.

Laurie:

Absolutely. Absolutely.

Kristen:

Beautiful. Thank you.

Laurie:

Your dog is just loving you. The spirit of unconditional love, he says.

Kristen:

Can you ask when he's coming back?

Laurie:

I can. Are you coming back? "Not at this time, but I'm going to work with you from spirit."

Kristen:

Okay, good to know.

Laurie:

And don't take it personally. It's just the soul on the other side has very important things to do that they're not always able to explain to us here on earth. But he visits you, he'll come to you as often as you ask him to come, and you still have that spiritual support and that great love. The love story that you have together is eternal. Remember that.

Kristen:

Wonderful.

Jennifer:

Beautiful. Thank you, Kristen, for bringing that amazing information forward. Kristen, would you pick our next person from one to 163?

Kristen:

82.

Jennifer:

82. Thank you, love.

Kristen:

Thank you.

Jennifer:

Okay, honey. All right. We're going to call in number 82.

Martine:

I'm so happy. My name's Martine. I'm calling from Holland. I'm following these beautiful lectures and I'm so grateful. Thank you.

Jennifer:

You're welcome.

Martine:

Very, very, very beautiful. I have a question about my dog. I have a dog called Flynn, it's brown Labrador. He's six years old and he's still with his mother, Julie. And he has a lump on his jaw.

Laurie:

Has he had any scans or x-rays or anything like that of the lump?

Martine:

No, there was just a little lump first and then they said it doesn't matter, because it felt soft. But now it's attached to the jaw and I don't think he has trouble with it, but it's there. And I don't know if I have to take it away or not.

Laurie:

Let's bring him in. Flynn, would you like talk to us? Here he comes. So Flynn, would you like veterinary care for the lump that you have? He says, "Yes, he would. He would like to have it removed." Is it life threatening? "No." Is there anything that you'd like to share with us about the lump itself? As Jennifer said before, he's taken on something for you that's manifested as a lump and it's drawing your attention to your relationship and the care that you're giving him. He wants you to do what the message has said today. Let go of negativity, let go of worry, let go of the frenetic energy and step into the divine energy that you carry. He wants you to know he doesn't want to leave. He doesn't want to go anywhere, but it would benefit him to have it removed. And for you to know that he can do a hundred percent healing, that he can be completely restored.

Laurie:

He's showing me. Again... I often see angels. He's showing me angels around you that want to talk to you. They want to offer you divine guidance. And, of course, he considers himself in that category. He's an angelic being that's embodied into the body of a dog. His mission is to bring you unconditional love and to show you that no matter what occurs, there's a way through. There's forgiveness, there's restoration and there's always joy. And he is the keeper of the joy, he says, in your family.

Martine:

He is.

Laurie:

Have you done any public speaking?

Martine:

I'm a teacher, but I'd love to do public speaking. I've just been having ideas about doing this kind of stuff.

Laurie:

Well, I'm just seeing adoration around you as a speaker so that explains it. He's just saying, "Congratulations, it's one of your great gifts." And I didn't know if you were accessing it. Obviously you are as a teacher.

Martine:

I just started two years ago, so it's just a start.

Laurie:

Well it's okay. You started. It's a gift, an absolute gift that you're able to use your voice as an instrument of wisdom and teach others.

Martine:

And also healing, or not? Sound healing?

Laurie:

Yes. He's asking for music, some type of music that's very soft. Do you play music in the background in your house?

Martine:

No, not very often.

Laurie:

I think he'd like that. He's showing me he likes it. I think it's... I don't know. I'm asking for more details and he's showing me someone playing a violin, maybe the classics or some smooth jazz. Play it and see how he feels. It changes the vibration of your home. And, of course, I would always recommend you play some whale sounds to clear your home. And he says you have an innate ability to build new things while you're here. And I'm not talking about construction site building, I'm talking about that you bring new ideas that can take form and shape and be built into new paradigms or to change the paradigms that are out there into something better. Don't doubt that part of yourself.

Martine:

But it's so scary.

Laurie:

Yes and no. How about, 'I'm going to move through that and see what happens'. The worst thing that could happen is you build something incredibly beautiful. Connecting with others. That's one of the messages that we brought through tonight. I think it was part of Seth's messages, it's time to join with other like-minded people and to know we have the support to manifest these new ideas, these new inventions even that are coming forward that have been blocked before. Isn't that great?

Martine:

Yes, that's great. But I have a feeling there's a whole theme around me in there so it was yelling in my ears and I don't hear them and I would love to hear them, but I don't know how.

Laurie:

Do the things we talked about. Stay grounded. In the morning, connect to the earth.

Martine:

I do, every morning.

Laurie:

Connect to the energy of the sun, triangulate, come into your heart. And every time you find yourself having a judgment or a negative thought, back in the heart, back in the heart. The CD called Laurie Reyon And Master Cat Puddah Speak has one of the most powerful meditations on it I've ever created. It has helped thousands of people. It is called Entering Your Sacred Heart. And it is the product of me studying the flower of life teachings, where I made my own recording of how to do that. There are two teachings on that that will change your life, that actually show you how to do it and then also to bring in the dolphin frequency to raise you into the joy vibration. And when you're in that vibration, you will manifest. You will. It's inevitable. It's only when we're not in a high vibration and not in our heart, that our manifestations are blocked. And the fear that you carry about, 'I don't know if I can do it, or if I'm worthy,' will melt away and you will find yourself stepping into your power. Isn't that what you want?

Martine:

I would love it.

Laurie:

Okay, so do that.

Martine:

But I feel surrounded by negativity in the house, in my husband and everyone who doesn't believe.

Laurie:

You can't change your husband. Only you can decide if you want to live in that. I'm not telling you to leave your husband, I'm telling you to examine what you want. But the negativity that other people express does not have to affect you. If you have to, step outside or into another room and meditate, blaze the violet flame, play the whale sounds. There's a myriad of things you can do to keep the energy clear, but nobody can change you. You and nobody else can vibrate where you want to vibrate. Only you. So that's the creatorship ability that you carry. Take your power back and be what you came here to be. And you might be surprised that your husband moves right along with you. You don't know. He might. We talked about how people are affected by the coherence of our hearts. And when we're radiating love, it's pretty hard for them to be angry or upset or in a different mood. And if they continue to, move to the other room. Okay?

Martine:

And the triangulation, I didn't see the triangle. The first one was the nature.

Laurie:

The first step is grounding and it's connecting to the earth herself and to the elemental kingdom, even to the crystals. The second step is to connect that which you call God or creator through the sun because the sun is the portal or gateway that source energy comes to our planet. We wouldn't be here without the sun. It's nurturing. It carries the solar codes that you want to put into your body every day to balance what we call the courage, the masculine energy, the get up and go energy. And the third energy is the heart. So you triangulate with the earth and the sun and yourself using those three energies to move out of duality, to moving into what we call triangulation. And see, when you're not here, when you're not embodied as a human on earth, you live in triangulation, you live in this higher peaceful vibration, and you access that all the time naturally.

Laurie:

It's part of who we are. But also part of who we are here in our amnesia, we've forgotten. So when you remember this and you implement it, and again, it's part of many, many spiritual teachings. The one that I learned it from is the flower of life. And, of course, the animals do it naturally. And it changes everything. I just want you to trust me on that. If you'll do it, you'll be diligent running that energy in your body, you will see life changes everywhere you look. Because people will show up, you know, the things that you want. The universe is conspiring to assist you. It won't have to do that anymore. It can actually knock on the door and come in.

Martine:

That's very good.

Laurie:

Years ago she would come to me and she always does things in metaphors. And she says, "Mom, the love trucks are here. They're trying to back up and deliver the gifts and you won't get out of the driveway. The love trucks are here. All the things you've prayed for and desired - they're here. They're ready to deliver. Can you let them in? Let them in."

Martine:

That's wonderful.

Laurie:

So are you letting the love trucks in to deliver your gift? It's kind of fun to think of it that way.

Martine:

And can I ask you just to repeat the name of the recordings you were selling?

Laurie:

The download is Lauri Reyon and Master Cat Puddah Speak. On the special offer it's in a purple package and it has a meditation called, Entering Your Sacred Heart. And again, it is one of the most powerful things I've ever created, and it will help you too. Go to www.laurieoffer.com.

Laurie:

It's part of what we're offering you, the whole download.

Martine:

Thanks for answering all these questions. I'm very grateful.

Jennifer:

You're welcome. That was great information that you brought forward for us all. I'm glad we finally got to you. Martine, would you pick our next person from one to 158?

Laurie:

We have 82 waiting.

Jennifer:

Oh, we do. We're going to Kelsey in Rayford, North Carolina. You're on the air.

Kelsey:

Hello. Thank you so much. I appreciate it. For me, I feel this strong energy to step into my power, into my higher self. And I feel like I'm hitting my head against a wall. I've gotten so frustrated. I know it's there, I'm just not seeing it.

Laurie:

With being in the heart, with navigating your energy into the heart?

Kelsey:

Yes.

Laurie:

And how do you do that? Just tell us so we can kind of follow along here.

Kelsey:

I put my left hand on my heart first and my right hand on top of it and I tune into the beating, feeling the vibration.

Laurie:

So when you go into the heart in the way you're describing, do you feel a difference when you go into the heart and you surrender the mind?

Kelsey:

Oh yes, definitely.

Laurie:

I don't want to be in any way judgmental, but when I first learned this, I had to do it about a hundred times a day because we're ingrained to judge. We're even encouraged to judge. In school they tell us to be competitive, to take tests and then it's going to be hard and you might not make it and somebody else is probably going to beat you out. And religion teaches us... and again, I don't mean to be disrespectful, but that we're not worthy. None of that is true. You're a divine being and it's your right, your spiritual right, to claim your mastery and to be in your heart and to never feel really anything except positive love and joy. Now, no doubt we came to the earth to experience different challenges.

Laurie:

But as you heard in the messages, that time is ending. Isn't that nice? It's like we wrote these scripts to play out here while we were in amnesia, to experience challenge, even disease and pain and suffering and to learn from it. If anything else, just the simple factor is, I don't want to do that anymore. Thank you so much. I had that experience, I learned from it, now I choose to be well and healthy and vibrant and to do the things I really came to the planet to do. How does that message feel to you, when I say it to you, how does that feel in your body?

Kelsey:

Oh, spot on. I feel an opening.

Laurie:

Good, good. I want you to imagine a runner, maybe a marathon runner. And I want you to see yourself at the starting line. And today is a brand new day. So many people judge today by yesterday or an old memory or "ow, remember when he hurt me," that has nothing to do with today. God, the energy of creator gives you a brand new slate every day. And that's something I don't think we remember on our own. We're certainly not taught that every day is a brand new day. That you don't have to carry the baggage of yesterday. All you have to do is forgive and say, thank you for that experience. I learned from it. And I really mean it because you did and then come to this place where you can say ready, set, go and take off and be in a brand new place. It's not like you have to know exactly how everything's going to unfold today, but you have to be ready to enjoy the journey. And I'm just seeing you, as a metaphor, as just running and enjoying that moment of just running and being free, embracing the frequency of being in the heart. And I don't know. Do you like to run? I don't know why I'm seeing you running.

Kelsey:

Yes, actually I do that quite often when I need to release.

Laurie:

That's why I'm seeing that. You really have to just parent yourself. And this is for everybody. You have to watch your thoughts. Don't let them take hold if they're not positive. Obviously we have to think. We have our brain, it's part of our body, but you want to navigate your life from the heart. They've even proven that there are brain cells in our heart now. Isn't that interesting? It's up to you to parent your thoughts and if the negative thoughts come back or the thoughts of where you say, I'm frustrated, you can say that's the last time I'm going to feel that. I don't want to feel that anymore. I'm making a new choice. I'm surrounding myself with positive energy. I'm entering my sacred heart in the morning and I'm going to stay there all day long.

Laurie:

If I pop out, I'm coming back, I'm going to be optimistic. And I'm going to exercise the power of forgiveness to anything that is less than loving in my life, anything, because I can. I can make a new choice. And often it helps to see yourself when you're doing this as a young person again. I don't know what you perceive to be negative or yucky things happening to you. And you're fresh in that energy and you're just ready to enjoy life and move forward from that place. Master Cat Puddah says, "Live in a world of yeses. Don't even let the no's in." Just be like the animals are, the answer is always, yes. It might not be right now. The yes might be a little bit down the road, but it's still a yes. And the universe will tell you in that place that you can have whatever you want. You just have to be ready to use the vibration of the law of attraction to bring it to you, which is just joy, just happiness and confidence. Can you do that?

Kelsey:

I think so. I can.

Laurie:

The difference in the vibration between 'I think I can' and 'I can'?

Kelsey:

I can, I will.

Laurie:

You even used the word 'think', which again, no offense, but you went back to the mind for a moment there and you just really don't want to do that. It's rewriting old belief systems. And does it happen overnight? Probably not, but it doesn't have to take a long time. You have to see the prize. What is the prize? Living in joy, happiness, manifestation, success, abundance, health. Is that worth it to do the exercise, to come back in your heart and to keep the energy balanced? Shut off the old energies, create a protective boundary of light around yourself. Is it worth it? Oh yeah. Oh my gosh yeah, it is worth it. But only you can do it. I can't do it for you. Wish I could.

Kelsey:

Thank you so much.

Laurie:

You're welcome.

Jennifer:

Beautiful. Thank you so much, honey. That was amazing, important information that you helped us bring forward. Thank you, Kelsey.

Laurie:

It was.

Jennifer:

I think that's a wrap on tonight. Thank you, Laurie Reyon so much for an incredibly powerful evening of hope and energy and shift and just solid, solid advice and insights. Thanks to the pets that brought forward the great information for all of us and thanks Master Cat Puddah as well and Seth and the whales and dolphins and your higher self. Thank you all so very, very much.

Laurie:

You're welcome. Master Cat Puddah has an affirmation if you'd like?

Jennifer:

Sure, let's do that.

Laurie:

As we close, this is the 2022 to soul affirmation. Everyone, please go into your heart. "I reconnect spirit and body, heaven and earth so that my body and soul are one. My soul connects to my heart center in love and peace. I manifest from soul and spirit into matter, following the laws of divine creative power and balance. I create a garden of peace and creativity within my heart and soul that manifests all around me. I am connected to the powerful flow of divine creative intelligence, and I direct this flow into magical manifestation through my personal intention and focus. I live without fear, without expectations and without attachments, but simply in the flow of love and creativity and divine manifestation. I release the hold of duality and shadow on my life. I am ready to embrace love, creativity and magic. I flow with the powerful divine light codes and currents without fear. I am ready to balance myself between heaven and earth and to step forward as a master of these energies on planet earth. I am that I am. So be it and so it is.”

Jennifer:

That's a beautiful finish. Thank you, Laurie. The soul affirmation for 2022 from Master Cat Puddah. Yeah, baby. Thank you for that. That's gorgeous.

Laurie:

She's going, meow, meow.

Jennifer:

Meow, meow, meow. That's awesome. Thanks Laurie, my love. And remember everyone, we have a double feature tomorrow. It's a really hot double feature too. Now these are two regulars on Masterworks Healing. Thomas does a couple of shows a year and Mary does about six, seven shows a year and that's who's on tomorrow. Thomas John is one of the most accurate mediums you will ever meet in your entire life. I'm not kidding. I'm not being hyperbolic. This guy is insanely accurate. The one story I tell all the time is he said to one of our members, he talked about this strange word, I'm just going to make up a word, like avahawala, something crazy. A word that you would never think of.

Jennifer:

And our member burst into tears and said, "Oh my God, that is the beach that we scattered the ashes of my best friend."

Laurie:

Oh wow.

Jennifer:

And it's just insane what he can do. I've never experienced anything like it. Every single show we collectively shake our heads in wonderment in a good way at how amazing his talent is. So that's tomorrow. He's also a celebrity medium. He's had a couple of television shows. He has a residency in Caesars Palace. This is a big guy. He's a very, very well known medium. So he's part of our little community. And then the amazing Mary A. Hall. Mary is just an incredible, incredible healer. She's also a profound abundance activator. She has this uncanny ability to actually understand where your abundance frequency is at and help you adjust it. I've never seen anything like it. Mary's also my best friend. She's my roommate. And Mary... there's no question that I am where I am in my life in business because of her amazing guidance, wisdom, and energetic support. And she will support you tomorrow night. So expect some miracles tomorrow between Thomas John speaking with your loved ones past and Mary Hall, helping you with your abundance and prosperity for 2022 and anything else that's in your life. She's incredible with abundance and deep love, but she's also profoundly helpful with health and everything because abundance is all those things. So join us tomorrow. Much love everyone. Thanks again, Lauri. Bye-bye everyone.
