Jennifer McLean:

Hi everyone and welcome to Predictions Week 2022, we are here on day 5 with the amazing Mary A. Hall. You guys are in for an enormous treat. Mary is going to start with her divine predictions. She taps into the heart from the heart, and then she'll be doing some session work with you all.

Jennifer McLean:

It has already started. You might be noticing some energy. If you don't notice energy, don't worry about it but it has started. Mary has this profound ability to hold this extra-special space of love for us. I can tell that she's doing it right now, and that love energy makes a huge difference for everyone.

Jennifer McLean:

Someone reached out that received a reading from Thomas. By the way, happy birthday to your husband, Debbie. Deborah, I got your message. She got her message from her husband on her husband's birthday today. Isn't that cool?

Mary A. Hall:

Yes!

Jennifer McLean:

Thomas was amazing. She mentioned that she's been coming to Predictions Week for years, and she is finally joining. I'm hearing that from quite a few people too, this year is likely the year. As I've been mentioning this year, and you've been hearing about how interesting and unique this year is.

Jennifer McLean:

It's really a year of powerful heart-opening and heart-openings are beautiful, joyous, and sometimes they can feel challenging. That is usually the mind's perspective and we are really good at supporting minds and changing minds and shifting beliefs on MasterWorks Healing.

Jennifer McLean:

Now, today, I'm so excited to welcome someone who's very, very special, I'm getting emotional, Mary A. Hall.

Jennifer McLean:

Mary is one of the most incredible healers I know. She is renowned for her capacity and ability to hold people, hold all of us in this energy of love that she's doing right now. She helps open hearts and minds and shifts the energy to abundance. Abundance is not just money, although she's certainly helped me there profoundly.

Jennifer McLean:

There's no way I'd have the career I have if it hadn't been for her amazing guidance and help over the years. That abundance is also for health, for prosperity, and for all aspects of life, including relationships.

Jennifer McLean:

She's just one of those really special souls that sits in the background. She's one of the quiet ones that's sitting in the room, but she's also one of the most powerful ones in the room. Her system to guiding others is really about connecting them to their heart and their divine essence.

Jennifer McLean:

The system that she uses has launched her to become one of the most profound healers in the industry. At the heart of her work is this ability to see others for who they really are, as true beings of divine love and light.

Jennifer McLean:

Let me tell you, when you're seen by Mary A. Hall, you're seen, you are genuinely seen, and when you are seen, it opens and ignites something within you, that is unexpected. Some of you, again, might be feeling that right now, she radiates light and love into everyone she encounters, and holds a space of honor and compassion, which enables and empowers all of us to simply remember our true essence.

Jennifer McLean:

Mary is also my best friend in the whole universe, and she's also my roommate. I'm so blessed and honored to be able to play with her and call her friend and call her my roommate. Welcome, Mary A. Hall to MasterWorks Healing Presents Predictions Week. It's lovely to have you here.

Mary A. Hall:

It is so wonderful to be here. I can tell that there's such a powerful group that's here and I've been just holding everyone that's present, that's going to be listening later. Even if it's in the future, they're being held in this moment in love. We just get to feel that for a moment as we step into that space.

Mary A. Hall:

I want to bring to light part of what you've brought together within this community. MasterWorks Healing, it's the master of each and every one of you, it's the master that is in your divine essence and knowing, that's ready to move you forward in your life and your life experience.

Mary A. Hall:

Jennifer, I think you just worded it so beautifully, that we each, as contributors, see the best in you, each and every one of us when we have our time with you, we get to hold you in this beautiful canopy of love and compassion and care, and channel through the messages for you. I was really looking at this because there are 12 contributors that you've gathered together.

Mary A. Hall:

And how from that beautiful symphony of those that you've gathered is almost if we were to look at it as though the frequencies of light. When we look at the light itself, we know that it carries this spectrum of color. Each of us carries this frequency that we tap into the divine and draw from it.

Mary A. Hall:

Our own ability that creates this incredible, full spectrum of light, and know that, as you are here together with all of us, that you've gone through this whole week of predictions as we all are holding you in this incredible space of allowing you to move into the very best that 2022 holds for you.

Mary A. Hall:

I wanted to just bring forward the flavors that each of us brings, creates the deepening of the whole spectrum of color. That seemed to be really important to share.

Jennifer McLean:

I love that. That's so cool. That's a really great image that I'm feeling in my heart.

Mary A. Hall:

Yes.

Jennifer McLean:

Beautiful. Thanks, Mary.

Mary A. Hall:

Here we go into predictions for 2022. There is so much that was being channeled through for each and every one of you. I want you to take a moment and just take a deep breath. I want you to allow yourself to just let go of any multitasking. The reason is because you want to be present for you.

Mary A. Hall:

This is what you are here, saying, "I want to move into 2022 in a brand new way." There is a beautiful shift. Just notice that for a moment as we move into the channeled information that is here. 2022 is actually a brand new slate. It is a brand new blank slate. I want you to just take a moment of feeling that.

Mary A. Hall:

There is a recalibration that's going on and you can make it what you want. I want you to just take a moment for that, the opportunity to recalibrate, to divine love and the higher dimensions of the heart. 2022 also has inherent trends that are beginning to start shifting and dissolving into new trends. I want you to hear this.

Mary A. Hall:

Don't live by your life, only by the trends. Notice them, notice that they are shifting. Notice that there is a power that happens when we start being able to witness the predictions that are being shared through each and every one of us, as we're bringing and channeling through this information that is so powerfully relevant for you and your experience.

Mary A. Hall:

You can be the guiding light of your own life. Take a deep breath with that. 2022 has opened a brand new portal. It's a new year with renewed compassion. There is a capacity for compassion toward yourself and your life experiences. It's the willingness of understanding that this renewed compassion is able to hold your life and your life experiences in a brand new way, with love and compassion for everything that you have gone through.

Mary A. Hall:

This year of 2022 holds a year of possibilities far beyond your comprehension. Why don't you just take that in? A year filled with genuine true self-care, self-love - imagine welcoming all of you into your life, fully and completely. It's a year of renewed health and vitality, a year of prosperity, and a year of welcoming divine love, like never before.

Mary A. Hall:

I was shocked as I started witnessing this capacity of opening and connecting to our heart in such a way, that there is a welcoming of divine love like never before. I can't contain it, my heart is just exploding. 2022 offers an exquisite, expanded realm of possibilities. There is a window that is open for you to step through and experience that new and powerful you within 2022.

Mary A. Hall:

It is whether you open your heart to these frequencies of divine love. Of course, Thomas John even shared about it that this is the year of tapping into your heart center, integrating your spiritual, emotional, and physicality through your heart center. There is some deep capacity for us as we move into receiving this divine relevant information that actually fuels us in our life.

Mary A. Hall:

Again, just taking this breath, as we notice some of this information that is here. There is also a way of giving space. The words that came through, it is a critical time. It is a critical way of us stopping and realizing that the only thing that stands in the way of us receiving those things that we desire, our heart connection, that expanded space of love and opening to the prosperity and wellbeing that's here is your beliefs, whether they tether you to the past or whether you are willing to recalibrate them to divine love to rise above and raise your frequency to align to your soul-light energy, your soul-light frequency.

Mary A. Hall:

As you do, there are some really powerful things that begin to happen. We radically begin to alter the internal environment. Our heart becomes in this new framework and frequency of love that begins to actually start morphing and recalibrating so that our external world starts revealing it. This is what is here for us in 2022, it holds infinite possibilities.

Mary A. Hall:

Let's just take a moment and take a deep breath. I want you to open your heart in this moment, allowing the love that's here, that's present, allowing the recalibration that's here, and stop and imagine for a moment the new you that is rising into 2022. There is a huge shift that just occurred with the renewed powerful essence of who you are, seeing that there are wealth and possibilities at every corner aligned and really beginning to open to receiving divine love.

Mary A. Hall:

Divine love is always present, always willing to move in as a soothing bomb to every experience in our life. There is this beautiful energy of reconciliation. That's here for us in our relationships with our loved ones and friends and know that, as we begin to receive the divine love that's present at every moment, it allows us to release those old stories and beliefs, allowing 2022 to be this year of welcoming a brand new you.

Mary A. Hall:

This is some of the information that came through as I was really channeling at the very beginning of the year, even from December into this year, which is, it's a year of a new beginning. It's a year of hope, a year of healing the past, a year of welcoming a new you, a year of health, a year of welcoming in divine love, a year of peace, a year of prosperity, a year of great wealth, a year of welcoming. The releasing of the old and transforming into the new possibilities that are present.

Mary A. Hall:

I want you to just allow your heart to experience these energies. Sometimes the words are pale in comparison to the energy that is being brought forward, so allowing you to just be in that space of receiving that energy, receiving the heightened awareness that your soul light is nudging you to remember, to open to and to allow in.

Mary A. Hall:

There are just a few more things that are coming through here, which is love is always present. Divine love is always present. We're just going to take a deep breath and say, "Ooh, thank you. I'm welcoming it in." All right. Thank you.

Jennifer McLean:

Wow. That felt good. That a prediction of the energy of possibility is so empowering. Thank you for that incredible, obviously heart-centered, soul-light infused message. I hope all of you have opened to the energies that are present here as Mary shared that inspiration. Thank you.

Mary A. Hall:

My honor and pleasure to bring forward this information, I love that Laurie Reyon even shared how these moments of where we come into this Predictions Week, and we allow for the information to flow through us. I have tears.

Mary A. Hall:

It is the most powerful aspect of this time when we bring into this brand new year is to stop and say, "Am I willing to open to what's new? What's new on the horizon? What's new that's here for me?" What's here for you and allowing us to take a moment and say, "Am I willing? Am I willing to let go of those old beliefs?"

Mary A. Hall:

Our beliefs are the containers of our experience. As we let go, be willing to let go of the beliefs that you hold about yourself and allow divine love to recalibrate you into those new awarenesses and the containers of being held in divine love.

Jennifer McLean:

Yeah, that energy is powerful. Powerful, the correct word, but it doesn't describe the energy. It is so supportive. That is so encouraging for the sheer folly boy. It is like each contributor has added a little thread to the weave of beauty, that is 2022.

Mary A. Hall:

Really powerful.

Jennifer McLean:

Wow. Thank you, Mary. That was amazing. That felt darn good. That just felt darn good.

Mary A. Hall:

Well, I'm here ready to work with individuals. We're just going to see where the energy takes us. I know that each and every one of you is going to receive deeper because there is an awakening that is happening. I want everyone to just take a moment and witness that your soul light is speaking to you right now.

Mary A. Hall:

Your divine essence is nudging and waking you open and you might even start feeling, "I just got chills." You are going to notice that when you start moving into that deeper aspect of your heart, there is that awakening that says, "I remember who I am at this deepest energy", and that there is that pull and desire to return to divine love, which is who you are, that light frequency, that love and light frequency of who you are, as the soul light being here, remembering who you really, really are. I am just so overjoyed to start working with individuals.

Jennifer McLean:

Beautiful. Let's do that.

Jennifer McLean:

You will definitely want to check out the very unique offer. I think it's one of the more unique, powerful offers we have this year, although they're all incredible. You can go to www.predictionsweek.com/mary2022. And in that offer, you are going to receive this beautiful love light. As soon as you start reading it, you are going to start receiving it. If you want a little extra dose of this, go to the page and start reading it.

Jennifer McLean:

Mary shares some really beautiful information there, and she talks about this love frequency that she's been mentioning, that we all individually and collectively have experienced, but haven't really brought it to our conscious attention very deeply. She's going to bring it to your conscious attention over 21 straight days of deep and profound healing. Plus, six live sessions with her. This is a huge program, and she's put it together at a huge discount for predictions week. This love frequency she talked about - she shares here that love is the central most powerful, positive energy in the universe. As we hold ourselves and others in an energy of love, this powerful frequency will leave this lasting effect on us and opens our field to multiple potentialities and possibilities, which she shared as part of this year.

Jennifer McLean:

That is why I think this program is so powerful and needed right now. This love is like a superpower and as it gets turned on, it activates prosperity and abundance, ignites wholeness, health and wellness. This love energy that Mary in particular is able to wield, if you will, it is like a superpower. It's the most powerful antibiotic known to man. It's the most significant wealth creator ever created. It's the most healing bomb to any conflict. It is the answer for any upset in your life. It also, of course, impacts those we focus it upon. It changes our circumstances. It is so often upset and shifts those who interact with us profoundly, and it just shifts them. We don't have to do anything. It's really amazing. I've seen this miracle with Mary over and over and over and over and over again.

Jennifer McLean:

This offer is really cool in that she's here to help you to recalibrate and rebirth this emergence that is happening already. But with her amazing guidance, she's going to help you to accelerate it, and yet tame it, if you will. It starts with 21 days of grace filled regenerating, remote transmissions of love and healing energies. As I said, this is Mary's gift. This is what she does. She's so good at holding us in the energy so that we can hold it. Every single day Mary is going to work with you. You don't have to show up, you don't have to do anything. It's going to happen remotely in the background as you go about your day. Isn't that cool? 21 days, you're going to be immersed. It's an immersion in love frequency. And she has already talked about how powerful this light divine frequency is. On top of that, you're going to receive six live quantum healing and group calls.

Jennifer McLean:

Each of these are quantum healing processes. It starts by building the sacred container in session one. And then in session two you're going to look back at 2021 with kindness and love, and bring completion energy to it. In the next session, you're going to look over the decade and bring completion energy to it. In session four, you're going to hold compassionate space to honor your life and life experiences. And in session five, you're going to explore the intentions and create, draw something on that blank slate of possibility, and create something from this love light, this powerful love light energy. And session six is a live two hour interactive group healing call where you get to work directly with Mary.

Jennifer McLean:

And of course, there is the 21 days in the background, remote love healing. Profound completion energy and profound creation energy are here for you in this very special prediction weeks offer. The program starts on Tuesday, January 18th. It actually runs from the 18th to February 5th. And that final group healing call is on that Saturday, February 5th. Imagine being able to really let go of limiting beliefs, really let them go. The things that have been holding you back from what you've been wanting and finally reveal and claim and take action upon your abundance energy that expands and grows the more you tap into it. Mary is a beautiful, profound facilitator. She's going to help you access this energy. Thank you, Mary, for putting this amazing program together for us. I so appreciate it. I mean, I'm a big fan of yours, as you know, and I think this program is just incredibly profound. So thank you. Thank you. Thank you for putting this together. Have any thoughts about it? And again, we're going to pick a number in just a moment.

Mary:

Well, as you were sharing so many of the pieces, it's really about allowing our awareness to understand that we can not only can we create something brand new within this beautiful blank slate, but we can uncreate whatever we've held in our field that we've held that's tethered our path to us that we're still living in. So it's allowing really the deepening of the uncreate so that we can move into that full blank slate of moving into 2022 in a brand new way. Like this is... I cannot tell you how powerful. I'm looking, forward to it.

Jennifer McLean:

It's really, really powerful. I'm already enrolled so I will be there with you all receiving from Mary. I want to share that Dina just shared, "The call started with chills all over my body." And she said, "Now I'm brought to tears with the divine love I'm feeling. Thank you for such a beautiful presence of power and experience." Dina, you've got it. Thank you for articulating exactly how beautiful Mary is. Let's dive into some session work.

Jennifer McLean:

Let's hold an intention right now. Everyone put their hand on their heart and stop what you're doing and take these small actions. I'm telling you the small actions are what add up to big manifestation. So stop multitasking, take a pause for the next 20 seconds. Bring attention and presence and conviction to what you're about say to yourself as we hold an intention. Now, say these exact words to yourself: "May the perfect people be chosen to work with Mary tonight so that I receive at the highest levels." Ah, lovely. Well, that was good. And let's say it again to ourselves and really bring presence and conviction to this intention. "May the perfect people be chosen to work with Mary tonight so that I get exactly what I need at this time." Wow. Did you feel that? Whoo. That was good.

Mary:

I got chills.

Jennifer McLean:

That was very good. Mary, would you pick a number from one to 211?

Mary:

Well, I keep going to 211. So, there you go.

Jennifer McLean:

All right. I think it's one of our members. You are on the air.

Joyce:

Hi. This is Joyce. Love to hear you guys always.

Jennifer McLean:

Good.

Joyce:

I guess my question for Mary is that I have taken your program in the past and I am really focused on building abundance, and I feel like I'm an abundant person, but not financially abundant. I'm wondering, is there other things I can do to be more financially abundant?

Mary:

Okay, beautiful. I'm going to just kind of open up some of the space that's here. Again, we want to really be aware that your beliefs are the container of your experience. In this moment, I'm drawn to five years old. Tell me a little bit about when you were five.

Joyce:

When I was five? Well, I grew up in a family of six kids, a family that always worked really hard. My parents had a lot of businesses that they ran and then six kids. We ran around pretty much always out of money, basically.

Mary:

Right? Very powerful energy. Just be witnessing to that energy. We're just going to take a moment. Everybody just being really honoring of the space that Joyce is allowing all of us to be aware of. Right? This energy of working hard, this working hard and never enough money. Right? In other words, what happens is we begin to hold onto some of those pieces, so that give us our identity. I'm going to bridge a little bit of awareness here. I want you to tap into your soul light energy, that is your truest identity, and allowing that soul light part of you to speak to that five-year-old you. What would you share with her?

Joyce:

That life can be abundant in ways other than money.

Mary:

Wait, wait, wait. You are absolutely 100% in your brain. We're just going to check with that for a moment. I want to allow your soul light to speak to that five-year-old you, not the thoughts that you hold about it. You hear the difference?

Joyce:

Yes.

Mary:

Nice. Okay. For a moment, I want you to tap into your soul light energy because you've worked with me in the past. I know that you are becoming more and more aware of that soul light essence that you are. This is where our power exists. Right? I have chills. From that space, what would you share with that five-year-old?

Joyce:

That everything's going to be okay.

Mary:

Nice.

Joyce:

That you're a bright young five-year-old with many options open in life. And just that things are okay. No matter what.

Mary:

Okay. You are hearing it. You're hearing something brand new that you haven't been able to articulate before. You're going to be all right. You're going to be all right. You're going to be all right. You're going to be all right. I want you to feel that into your system, like deep into your heart. You're going to be all right. There's an essence that you needed to hear those words.

Joyce:

Okay.

Mary:

Tell me what has occurred as you've listened to those words from your soul.

Joyce:

I get more relaxed and more at peace.

Mary:

Yes. Well, not only that, but we articulate our experience on the framework from our youth. And I want every time you move into looking at your abundance, because you're centered on, I can create abundance, but not with money, so I want you to notice that every time you go to money, I want you to think from that soul light energy that says you're going to be all right. Everything's going to be well, everything is good. Do you get it? But you have to be able to witness that your soul light is telling you this. Do you get it?

Joyce:

Okay. Yes.

Mary:

The soul light gives us this energy. That's why it took a while for you to get the articulation of the words. Those are powerful words for you that, every time money comes into your awareness, shift it back to "sweetie, you're going to be all right. Everything's going to be good." You get that energy?

Joyce:

Yes.

Mary:

Nice. It finally sunk in. Woohoo. We're celebrating with you, sweetie. Really, really good.

Joyce:

All right. Super.

Jennifer McLean:

Wow. That was awesome. Thank you so much for bringing that in Joyce. Woo. Thank you, Joyce.

Joyce:

Thank you.

Jennifer McLean:

You are a member, aren't you?

Joyce:

Yes, I am.

Jennifer McLean:

Would you be open to sharing a little bit about what it's like to be a member with our audience? You don't have to, you can say no.

Joyce:

Yes. I think it's great. For me, it's nice to have a break on Monday and Wednesday afternoon because I'm busy at work all day long, and then I can just take a break and listen to something different and out of the ordinary. And even if I can't stay the whole hour, I get filled up with something new and different. I'm not just filling my day with work. I kind of use it as my break time a couple of times a week and listen to something new and different just to open up and do something different.

Jennifer McLean:

Awesome. Well, that's a good way to use it. Thank you, Joyce. Would you pick our next person from one to 212?

Joyce:

Yes. How about 88?

Jennifer McLean:

88 sounds great. Thank you, love.

Mary:

Well we get to see some really powerful things. I want to allow this to be an incredible moment where everyone is saying, I want to be in the energy of my soul light energy and receive the information that's here for me. Everyone is saying that, yes. You guys are getting the resonance of your soul light that's speaking to you. Just know this is powerful, right? This is a powerful moment. Let's dive in with the next caller.

Jennifer McLean:

Okay. You're on the air. Is that Andrea?

Andrea:

Wow. Oh my God. It's so cool. Oh my God. I'm here. I'm with you. I'm just going to take a breath. I am so with everything you just were doing. I am so with this.

Mary:

Yes. Just take a deep breath. We want to allow for the space this is. One of the most powerful pieces that occurs when we get acquainted with our own soul light energy, we want to give it that space so it just allows for you to... It's almost like we sort of settle into it. Be willing to allow that beautiful heart space that's here present for you, that your soul light is coming through and speaking to you. Be just having that space just for a moment. We're all going to take a space with it because there is such powerful energy that's here. Beautiful, Andrea. Let me know what it is that you're bringing forward.

Andrea:

Well, something that just occurred to me before I was on the line is I noticed that I'm handling a little something that I've been doing this week and with a new grace and it's around money. An offer has been given to me for something I'm doing for my brother that can facilitate his life big time. And what I've had to do is completely trust that every time I said, oh, I didn't do it right, or the mind came in, I just went to the mind and went to the little girl and said, "no, it's okay. It's working out really well. You just can move over here."

Andrea:

And I came onto the call tonight thinking that I was going to bring him like... I'm power of attorney for a brother. There has been a lot of different things with his finances, with his healthcare, da, da, da, da, da. And just this week, an offer came in on some property. That's what I'm referencing. I'm trying to hold my own space for negotiating and waiting or not even waiting, just being with what I said in return to somebody is just perfect. And whether whatever happens, it's perfect. And that's a very new space for me to be in.

Mary:

That is so incredibly powerful. Let me bring some clarity to what is occurring because sometimes having the witnessing of the energy, the energetics behind what is going on is really helpful. And I want to bring it forward. And then I will obviously open to work with you in any other way. A you are starting to really get clear that you can be in a compassionate space with yourself, notice that what you are doing is you are completing cycles. In other words, those old cycles that kept coming up that said, wait a minute, you're not doing it right. You're like, whoa, whoa, wait a minute. That's actually the uncreate energy, which is, "wait a minute, it's all going to be working out. It's all going to be okay. I'm trusting that it's going to be okay."

Mary:

Notice that. That's creation energy. You uncreate it, and then you create it. Oh my gosh. And notice what it feels like to be in that, oh my gosh, I'm just going to uncreate what I believed so far, my whole life. Wait a minute, I can uncreate it. I can move into that new space that says, wait a minute. What's brand new is me being connected to my soul light. And I know that I can trust in the unfolding and trust in the timing and trust that it's going to work out. Beautiful, sweetie. Really beautiful.

Andrea:

I'm super moved because my mind wants to say a lot of things. Right? It's just there ready to go.

Mary:

But I want to draw attention to the fact that from our soul light, we can uncreate. It's only our mind that says we can't, you get it?

Andrea:

Yes.

Mary:

Oh yes. It's palpable.

Andrea:

Yes, I started to notice the uncreate to create is happening in nanoseconds.

Mary:

Yes, that's exactly right. And it's because you're holding that space of being connected to your heart and allowing your soul light to come through. It's really incredible when we give space for that which is here supporting us 100% of the time. Oh my gosh.

Andrea:

Wow. This thing keeps popping in like a little gopher coming out of the earth saying, "Yeah, but, but it's because it's from your brother. You know, there is all this triangulation. It is not going to da, da, da." It's almost like another level of me as a manifested. Because when I do it for myself, it feels another way. But there's been this other thing, I'm thinking I can't get it right. Because it's for someone else. I don't know how to describe it, but it's just another level of can it be? Can it just be with ease? Can I let myself off the hook? I think that's what it is or something that's very ancient with my family.

Mary:

Ah, family. This is really incredible. What the energy is, is the fear of being responsible for somebody else. Am I hearing that correctly?

Andrea:

Yes.

Mary:

Okay. We're just going to be in space with it. We're giving space with it, right? That fear of having to be responsible for somebody else. It is such an ancient energy for all of us because that energy has been passed down, through our parents, through our lineage. So much of that energy has been entangled, I want to say. We're just allowing space for it.

Mary:

And we're allowing that it's just information. It's almost like if we look at the DNA of a cell, it carries information. These energetics are passed down also. We're just going to be willing, each and every one of us, this is such a powerful energy for everybody. The fear carries a stress to it, right? It's the stress of being responsible, the fear of being responsible for somebody else, everything in us says, "Oh no."

Andrea:

Yes.

Mary:

Allowing for this moment, I just really want to bring some space to this. We really want to allow for everyone to get the impact of this because this is so relevant for everyone. Just notice from your soul light. Is there any need to be responsible for him? It's a very interesting thread of energy that's moving through.

Andrea:

No, for me, the answer is no, actually, from my soul light. No.

Mary:

Yes. Now I want you to notice, be willing to, for a moment, look at his soul light energy because when we are in a situation of things, like a personality that's either having struggles or is struggling with us or whatever it is. I want you to look at his soul light energy. How does he see it? In other words, does he need you to be responsible?

Andrea:

His soul light isn't even asking me to do that on any level.

Mary:

Yes. Now we're going to uncreate the fear. We can, in this moment, just notice that that fear didn't need to be here. It was just a resonant energy, just like information in a cell. It's a resonant energy that was being passed down. And I want you to notice it from the standpoint of, oh my gosh, I can. I think you can almost even see where it comes from because there's a thread of information that's like, "Oh yeah, da da da da da." So in that moment, I want you to say, "I am going to stand in the space of uncreating that need or fear around being responsible. And I get to move from one step to the next, to the next, as I'm being guided." That was a really incredible thread of information that came through for 2022 which is, we can be guided. We can be guided by the light of who we are, it is here to guide us. Notice what happened. The fear just got uncreated. Notice that for a moment.

Mary:

Yes. Now you can see why your soul light kept moving into allowing you the space to, even as you moved into something, like, "Wait a minute, I'm going to trust. Wait a minute, things are going to work out." Because that's the essence of what's here. The very best of your brother's soul light energy and the very best of your soul light energy are working together on behalf of both of you.

Andrea:

Mm, wow, that's so beautiful. And it's a fact, you say it like it's a fact. Fact, versus all that stuff around it.

Mary:

That's right. That's exactly right. Woo! Yes.

Andrea:

Wow. It's so cool, I was number 88 and that's my number, I love eight and I was like, eight and eight, two infinities together working together.

Mary:

So beautiful.

Jennifer:

Wonderful. Thank you so much for bringing that forward. That was incredible. Wow, that was cool.

Andrea:

I've had a physical ailment for a year as I've been taking on some of this "taking on". I just even said it in my words. In my neck and my shoulder, on my right side.

Jennifer:

Right, right. I mean all the information is there, isn't it? Always. Telling us exactly what's happening.

Andrea:

And right now, I'm getting some relief in my right shoulder.

Jennifer:

Oh, isn't that great.

Mary:

Nice.

Jennifer:

Wow.

Andrea:

That would've been my question for you, Mary, had I not had that other thing on my mind.

Mary:

Right.

Jennifer:

I love the way you started it too. I love the way you started it from the affirmation. Andrea, thank you so much for bringing this forward. Would you be willing to move our attention to our next person? From one to 197.

Andrea:

Oh, well, I was going to say 207, so let's go with 197.

Jennifer:

197 it is. Awesome. Thank you so much. Oka, we're going to 197. That was beautiful, Mary. Okay folks, here's what's happening now. I had a typo, I am so sorry. I can't believe this is happening. Anyway, it's very upsetting to me that I'm doing this. So apologies.

Mary:

Okay. Wait, wait, wait, wait. I want you to just allow for some beautiful compassionate space for yourself, sweetie. You are navigating through so much, your love for this community is so deep. And I just want to hold the space of love and compassion for you. You have been working nonstop in support of your community, of everybody that's here for this beautiful prediction. We're going to honor the fact that it is what it is. And we're going to hold that beautiful loving space for you.

Mary:

We each get to hold that loving space for you. And I want you to receive that loving space because it's here for you. Right here, right now. I can feel everybody just like pouring their love out to you. Yes. Allow that love in and just receive it.

Jennifer:

Thank you.

Mary:

You're welcome.

Jennifer:

Okay. We're going to 197. You're on the air. That's you Trina, you're on again, look at you.

Trina:

I just accidentally hang up and then I go back in. So I thought I'm the last person.

Jennifer:

See? Trust the process, trust the process.

Mary:

Yes. Beautiful.

Trina:

I'm a big fan of you, Mary, and I have a lot of your programs. I'm similar as the first lady, I have abundance and I always had money come easy to me. But, last year, I had all kind of problems happen financially and I was wondering, what's going on? I always have luck. So I don't know if that's something you can see.

Mary:

Okay. Did I hear you correct that you always have money coming easily and that for a long period of time you felt abundant? Or is it that money comes easily but that different things came up where money was required, that you were calling problems? In other words, what it sounds like, and I want to make sure that I'm hearing it correctly, is that money comes easily but things come up that you need funds for, like a car or different things that might happen and that kind of thing, is that what you're saying?

Jennifer:

No. It's like when something goes on with my life, I have luck. But last year, the air conditioning, the heater, everything went down and I had a warranty company and it wouldn't go through. And then I had surgery and the hospital billed it wrong and said it was not approved and now I'm dealing with that. And it's a lot of money, when it's approved. And I was like, what? I never had this bad luck. What is going on? I always had things that goes my way and I've been praying and doing a lot and I'm feeling it's going to get solved. But it's a lot of effort, calls and misunderstanding from other people. I was like, what? I never had this, what's going on? See what I mean?

Mary:

Okay. Yes. Now let's just step into it. Now that I have the full picture, I want to just notice. I'm going to bring in some of the information that's here. And your name is Trina, is that correct?

Trina:

Yes.

Mary:

And what state do you live in?

Trina:

California.

Mary:

Okay. It's very interesting. I'm going to speak directly from the information that's coming through, which is you actually are powerful and everything that showed up is for you to step into your power. Now what occurs is we think it's actually the opposite. We think that things are here that are messing with our energy. The reality is the energy that's here, I want you to hear it, is that you are powerful and that you have the information to hold steady, to work through whatever is here, that you are here working through.

Mary:

I want you to notice that for a moment. Because when we look at life and life experiences, as something is wrong because we have to struggle through it, that's what it appears to be. The reality is, it's getting you acquainted with your powerful self. Notice that for a moment. Because it feels like you lived your life in more of a timid space and this is calling you to stand up and be powerful. Let me know what that feels like to you.

Trina:

Scary.

Mary:

It's almost like the clay that is reforming you in your power. Now, again, we often don't realize that there is that part of us that is saying everything in you wanted to stay away from any of those kind of difficulties in the past. Do you get that? Just be aware of noticing.

Mary:

Now, let's just see if we can just notice something. Are you able to tap into your soul light, that essence, that truest of your essence? And be willing to see your experience from that soul light essence? Notice it for a moment, if you can.

Trina:

Not totally able to.

Mary:

Yes. Because there is this thread of power that is going to allow you even more so to allow money to flow in. We're going to kind of give some space for this because it's really important to understand that you have access to this. Okay. What happened when you were three years old?

Trina:

I don't know. I don't know if that's when my stepdad came in the picture. My mom got me young and I was living with my grandmother. And then I got a stepdad but I'm not sure exactly when he came in, maybe four or five.

Mary:

Okay. There was some kind of an abrupt thing that happened that didn't totally feel good.

Trina:

Could be.

Mary:

Does that feel right?

Trina:

Yes, kind of vague.

Mary:

Yes. But, again, you already have that inkling of that thread of information. That abrupt energy, everything's going along the way that it's going along and all of a sudden something's abrupt. That's what it feels like. That's what's happened in this past year, past year and a half, however long it's been.

Mary:

Let's just allow for some information to be here. Let me just move in with this energy. This is all energy, and now I have to put words to it, so sometimes the words might not fully express it, but it feels like your heart is hurting. It's like something is creating a deep heartache for you. And that heartache is mirrored when you were three, four, five and your stepdad showed up. Notice that. There's a heartache that's there. Are you aware of that heartache that's present in your experience?

Trina:

Yes. Something happened when my daughter, when she was five, she was taken away from me with her dad and I didn't see her for eight years.

Mary:

Mmm.

Trina:

They went to another country. And I met her again and we had to build a relationship. And now she's living on the East Coast, and I'm in California. I think that's what it is.

Mary:

Yes. Just take a moment. And I want to allow for some new information that you are now able to have communication with your daughter. Because we're just bringing in that information. What happens is the past is honing in on the heartache from it. We want to just give it space and we're going to open up, everybody, just allowing this beautiful space to open up. And I want you to allow the divine to love you. Because divine has compassion and understanding, fully understands everything that you've experienced. And love is here, welcoming your heart, wanting to soothe your heart.

Mary:

And allowing that divine love in the way that I like to articulate it, which is, love is always here, divine love is always here. Am I willing to let love in? And then, yes, I'm willing to receive and allow that love to heal and move through your system. Some powerful energy that's moving through. And just notice that that love is here, present in your experience within everything that you're experiencing.

Mary:

We're just allowing that love in, just almost allowing you to just open and say, "Yes", to that divine love. Right into the heartache, directly into the heartache, just like love is here, present, loving you.

Jennifer:

That's for everyone, by the way.

Mary:

Yes. Let me know how you're doing Trina.

Trina:

I'm emotional. And I got that since I wasn't able to stop him, I've been blaming myself.

Mary:

Yes. Now, notice what's happening, divine love is coming in and allowing you to uncreate that story. You don't have to blame yourself and we get to allow for some of that uncreating energy to just dissolve away, all of that space that you've been holding against you yourself. That's why, when you have had experiences in your life, you're blaming yourself. Notice that. This is why we start noticing, the past is filtering through our experience, now, allowing you.

Mary:

Yes, there is compassion here sweetie. So much love and compassion. Let go, be willing to allow love to soothe the information that's present because within it, you get to allow love in so deeply that you can forgive yourself. Love is rewriting. Nice, beautiful, sweetie. Really beautiful.

Trina:

I've been so hard on myself.

Mary:

Yes. And can you open to being compassionate with yourself?

Trina:

Yes.

Mary:

Yay. Yes. Really beautiful. There is so much beautiful love that's present. We're all feeling the love that is here that's present for you and that's present for each and every one of us.

Trina:

I think I can start loving myself now.

Mary:

Yes. And that love has always been here. Divine love has always been here. You are divine love. And notice from that space that there is even more of an uncreating of all that old energy. Really powerful, sweetie.

Jennifer:

Yes. I feel the energy moving through me.

Mary:

Yes. Beautiful.

Trina:

Thank you so, you're an angel. I didn't know I was going to cry but Mary you're powerful.

Mary:

None of us ever do, until we do.

Jennifer:

It's all good. Thank you for being the catalyst for that amazing healing for all of us and bringing forward that incredible information. Thank you, Trina, that was beautiful.

Trina:

You're welcome, thank you.

Jennifer McLean:

Speaking of luck, there was a belief about luck, and you've been chosen twice. There are 26,000 people here and you've been chosen twice. That's pretty cool.

Mary:

She's allowing you to let go of those old stories, that's the past, those are old stories and allow them to be fully rewritten. Yes?

Trina:

Mm-hmm (affirmative) Yes. Got it.

Mary:

Nice.

Jennifer McLean:

Lovely. Trina, you a member, right?

Trina:

Yes.

Jennifer McLean:

Well, we're glad you're here.

Trina:

I love this program.

Jennifer McLean:

Oh, good. Me too.

Mary:

Much love sweetie.

Jennifer McLean:

Trina, honey, would you pick our next person from one to 185?

Trina:

125.

Jennifer McLean:

125. Awesome. Thank you so much. I want to thank every for their beautiful heartfelt words. Thank you. It means a lot to me and yes, I forgot that I have COVID head. That's part of what's going on. My brain isn't working as it normally does. Thanks for the reminder. "You've got COVID, give yourself a break." I appreciate you all very much. Thank you. And you know, Mary always allows me to see what I'm ready to uncreate and that's part of this for 2022. There it is, upfront for all you to see. You're welcome.

Jennifer McLean:

We're going to 7818. You are on the air. I think it's Janet. Is that Janet?

Janet:

It's Janet.

Jennifer McLean:

Hey Janet.

Mary:

Hi Janet.

Janet:

Hi. I have had a very challenging time. I'm at a point of complete rebirth. I have had a lifetime where I awakened to self and became fully enlightened, and am rebirthing. The challenge I'm having relates to manifestation, because I came in to be a part of creating this transition. I have had a life that has been denial and extreme limitation, to the point where, when I try to manifest, I bring forth the reverse. I have a lot of trauma from miscreation flowing into my life, and it has to do with the inner world clearing jobs that I've been doing. And as I move into 2022, I'm realizing that I need to learn how to manifest anew from within the heart itself. When my heart energies have been completely blocked off in this lifetime. And I need a little bit of advice on how to make this transition from trauma, into bringing to me what I need and what supports me, when I have a lot of mistrust from experience.

Mary:

I love that you pretty much laid it out. I mean, as you were talking, I was seeing all these pieces and you actually shared each piece, and I was like, "Well, you need to manifest from the heart." And you're like, "I know that I need to manifest from the heart." I just want to kind of really speak to the fact that you are actually getting something brand new, that you're actually starting to see the inkling of it. I love that you said, "How do I move from trauma and mistrust?" Now, first of all, you cannot carry both. You cannot carry the trauma and mistrust, and manifest from the heart. I just want you to hear that because it's incredible to actually be willing to see it. The biggest piece here is being willing to understand who you are from your soul light energy. I want you to hear this, who you are from your soul light energy, of love and light, has never been traumatized. Can you hear that?

Janet:

I don't believe that.

Jennifer McLean:

Do you understand that?

Mary:

That's why I'm letting you know, by the way, because what you're believing as your soul light, is your past life. That's not your soul light, your soul light carries the intrinsic signature of love and light that you are. This is what occurs. I'm going to give you a synopsis. None of us get out of here alive, we all transition out of this experience. And then we move back into our soul light energy. And sometimes we carry the information from the past, but that is not who we are in our soul light energy, our soul light of love and light, in its purest essence, we carry information and we believe that's who we are, that is not who we are. What you've done, is you've believed some of the past experiences, maybe past lives, whatever it is that you are seeing as you. I'm trying to think of the right word. It's a belief representation of you, not the truth of who you are.

Janet:

Okay. Let me ask a question to see if I can get clarity. This trauma that I've been through, has unearthed through all of the kind of clearing and all the stuff I've been through; goes back in history a long time. Are you talking about a soul essence that precedes this trauma that seems to keep coming up within its clearing? Or are you talking about what's happened within this current lifetime?

Mary:

Neither. Let me explain it this way. I've experienced trauma in this lifetime, horrific trauma in this lifetime, physical trauma in this lifetime, I lived my life through that trauma. In other words, I perceived myself through the trauma, even though I didn't have memory of it. Now that's a really incredible piece because we hold the information. Now what has occurred now, in my journey, in my experience of witnessing over and over and over divine love coming through, divine love being that essence that's here welcoming me home, allowing that information in over and over and over until there was a light bulb moment, where I realized, who I am, is divine love and light. And it has always carried innocence. Even though in this experience, I was traumatized. Now what happens is when I get to that point of understanding, love rewrites and clears the trauma.

Janet:

What I'm sensing from what you're saying, is that I have moved into a place in this lifetime where I'm living and defining myself through the trauma that I've constantly been trying to resolve for myself?

Mary:

That's right. You got it.

Janet:

Okay. I'm sorry. I'm going to share a moment...

Mary:

Wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait. I want you to take a moment and breathe that in, because all of the information in our head cannot unwrite it. It's our Soul light that's actually transformed it, you got it.

Janet:

Okay. Now I want to give you... What I'm trying to do is get a sense of...

Jennifer McLean:

Janet, my love. Janet, my love?

Janet:

Yes.

Jennifer McLean:

You are so powerfully in your mind, and you're also powerfully in your intellect, and one of the things I'd like you to think about, just think about and consider, is just shifting into intellect and not mind. Mind is in the trauma. Mind is fueled by the trauma. The intellect is something that you are, I mean, you are a smarty pants. I call you people genius pants. Okay.

Jennifer McLean:

That intellect is really a source of your being, a source of your curiosity. And it's such an important part of you. The mind part of you can stop that intellectual pursuit and make it feel hurt. In this moment, just play with the idea of being in a different state of presence at this moment, in a slightly different state of presence, because you're trying to figure it out. You're trying to figure out something that can't be figured out. Mary has this crazy gift of being able to describe the light frequency in words like no one I know, but there really aren't words for what we're experiencing here and you are seeking the words so that your mind can figure it out. So just bring your attention to a little bit of, curiosity energy versus "I have to know" versus "I've got to figure this out." Would that be okay?

Janet:

What I'm doing is I'm letting the mind melt and I'm allowing myself to move into wanting to discover. I want to discover that Soul light but it's like, I don't know where it is.

Jennifer McLean:

Yeah. That discovery place. That's right. That's good.

Mary:

This is so powerful, Janet too, which is, you mentioned realizing you want to manifest from your heart and the heart is your direct access to your soul light, that pristine, beautiful soul light energy that you are. That's where we are connected to divine love. Because our soul light is synonymous with our connection to the divine. And I think from what I can tell within what's here, is the trauma has held you back from connecting to the divine in some way. And I want you to get that it's just a belief container that you've lived your experiences out of. And instead of continuing that container, we're letting go of the container. Does that make sense that you can, from your soul light, be in your heart and manifest from your heart? Two separate things.

Janet:

Okay. I'm beginning to get it. The heart shopper, my heart energies have been almost totally energetically blocked off in this lifetime. They're beginning to open up and it's like, I don't know where to go or how to relate to it, and I'm getting a sense to just melt into.

Mary:

That's right. I want to give some more information, which is love yourself back to life. You have withheld love from yourself so long, sweetie, allow love in and allow yourself to love yourself, that space of saying "I'm stepping into allowing compassion and love for myself and my experience." What I like to call it is honoring the dignity of all your experiences, but loving yourself so deeply within everything that you've experienced, love is so much greater than our experience. But we don't realize that until we can kind of connect back to our heart.

Janet:

Thank you very much, because what I'm realizing is that the love need is far deeper than all the self-love I've brought to myself. I feel like the love I've brought to myself for years has been superficial.

Mary:

Oh my gosh, I have tears of joy for you, sweetie. This is one those moments that allows our heart to expand and say, "There is nothing I have to do. There's nothing I have to do to gain love." Because I think you've been on a journey of trying to gain it. Like the reason to be loved or the reason that I can love myself. The reality is, oh my gosh, you are love, sweetie.

Janet:

It's more like... What I'm sensing is that I've gone deeply into self-love since I was... God, maybe 40, 50 years ago. But what I'm realizing is that, I was loving myself in order to cope with life. It isn't what I'm feeling now, which is very deep. It's sort of where I wanted to be, but I couldn't get there.

Mary:

Yes. Beautiful. Thank you so much for bringing forward that information. And I'm so excited that you are getting acquainted with this divine love, that's here for you, sweetie.

Janet:

Thank you very much. It's been very helpful.

Jennifer McLean:

Beautiful. Thank you, Janet.

Janet:

Yes. Sorry. I'm good. I'm crying. It's great. Great tears.

Jennifer McLean:

Just release. No story, just release. It's all good. Your tears. And they're real. You don't have to dismiss them. They're really important.

Mary:

Yeah. Really beautiful.

Jennifer McLean:

Thank you, honey. We're just going to stay with you for a minute as you release. Well done.

Mary:

Beautiful.

Jennifer McLean:

Thank you, Janet. Thank you for bringing that important info information through.

Janet:

You're very welcome. And the other thing that came through is you need number 16 next.

Jennifer McLean:

Well, okay. That'll be tomorrow then because we're done for today.

Janet:

Okay. Well thank you so much.

Jennifer McLean:

Thank you, Janet. Much Love to you. Oh my goodness gracious. Powerful evening. Thank you. Mary. Wow. What an incredible you evening. I think the people that showed up here are of a particular higher resonance that... Wow. I mean, it was really a special, a special, special, special evening. Thank you so much for holding us in our soul light. Thank you.

Mary:

Absolutely.

Jennifer McLean:

That was remarkable. Thank you, Mary, for magnificent evening.

Mary:

My absolute honor. I love, love, love everybody that's here. I can tell the power of this group today. Thank you for allowing me to see each and everyone and their beautiful light and your beautiful light.

Jennifer McLean:

Thank you. So we are not even close to done. We have three amazing sessions tomorrow. You are going to continue to receive so profoundly and deeply. We have our resident Numerologist Dr. Robert Peace starting us off and then we have the amazing Elizabeth Harper. Elizabeth is our psychic color resource. She has dabbled in everything. She even brings Oracle cards sometimes. Guaranteed you will get a reading, everyone gets a reading when Elizabeth comes on, it's really profound. She's going to take you through a little color journey. She's also really amazing with her predictions.

Jennifer McLean:

And then we have the amazing Tori Hartman, who is our Oracle reader. She wrote the very famous and popular chakra wisdom cards. She has some pretty interesting things she's brought forward from her guidance. And there's also going to be a reading. Everyone gets a reading with Tori as well. So join us tomorrow for our triple feature at 10:00 AM Pacific, 1:00 PM Pacific and 3:00 PM Pacific.

Jennifer McLean:

One that's 1:00 PM. Eastern, 4:00 PM, Eastern and 7:00 PM. Eastern, no 6:00 PM Eastern. So that's our shows tomorrow. Then we have another triple feature on Sunday. That's going to blow you away just as much as everything else, as you're starting to see, It's a very, very, very special place that you're going to receive profoundly. Masterworkceiling.com, www.Masterworkceiling.com or hit the yellow button there and join us. We'll be starting Monday on our regular schedule. Tuesday's a prayer circle. Wednesday is another session. So I hope you'll join us and start playing with us live starting next week. Remember the prices are going up on February 1st. So join in now. Love you guys. Thank you, Mary. We'll see you all tomorrow. Bye-bye now.
